

DRAKE
11 Weaver Way
Sandwich NY 02173

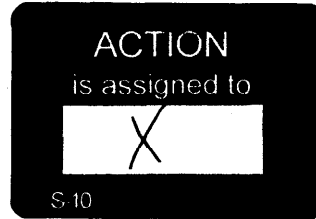

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:09

OST-98-3713-127

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

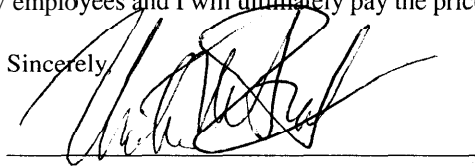

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

PLEASE KEEP YOUR HANDS OFF OF OUR THRIVING ECONOMY.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

1

Peyton T. Carr
23 Country Farm Rd
Stratham, NH 03885

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:09

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

2

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

 Peyton J. O'Connell 2

Robert Trent
2 Staysail Way
Portsmouth, NH 03801

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION
98 JUN 11 AM 10:09

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

3

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Robert Trent
2 Staysail Way
Portsmouth, NH 03801

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Robert Trent", is written over a horizontal line.

Mr Werner Lurtz
317 S Lakeside Dr
Lake Worth FL 33460-4627

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:07

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

4

11 7 0 7 1 1
RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

_____

---

Chris ~~_____~~ Hague
North Fork
100 Tuscar Circle
Jupiter, FL 33458

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:07

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

5

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "C. Chapman", is written over a solid horizontal line. Below this line is a dashed horizontal line.

_____

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "P. A. Judy", is written over a solid horizontal line. Below this line is a dashed horizontal line that spans the width of the page.

Mr. & Mrs. Stuart Morgan
19858 Loxahatchee Pointe Dr.
Jupiter, FL 33458

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:07

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

7

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

and EX EASTERN Airlines

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry. You helped create a free marketplace now leave it alone. This is a very cyclical industry, profits can be short lived.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

Stuart J Morgan

How many more times do you expect me to start my career over?

---

B. MEEDER
34 EMS T7 LN
LEESBURG, IN 46538

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:07
FBI/DOJ/EL 5/26/98 20:54

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

8

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

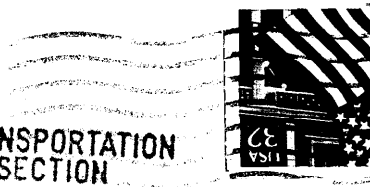

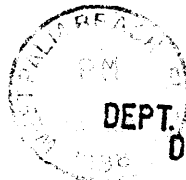

Sincerely,

Brad P. Meeder

---

DON BARTZ
794 N W SPRUCE RIDGE DR
STUART FL 34994

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:07

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

9

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

THINK SAFETY!  _____

---

 Mr & Mrs Mark Harris
3325 South Lake Drive
Boynton Beach, FL 33435-3543

BOYNTON BEACH
PM
DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION
98 JUN 11 AM 10:07

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

10

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

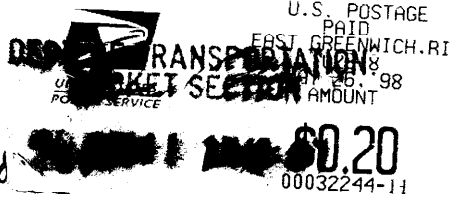

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

---

STEPHEN R RADICAN
100 ADIRONDACK DR
E. GREENWICH, R.I.
02818

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

//

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Clayton R. Paulsen". The signature is written in a cursive style with a horizontal line underneath the name.

THE MARSHALL FAMILY
11013 WILLIAMSBURG DR.
ELGIN, IL 60123-6746

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:09

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

12

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

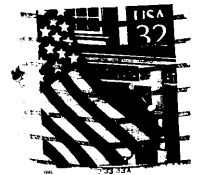

Sincerely,

_____

A NEIL
3316 MIUSTREAM
MARON68, IL 60152

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:09

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

13

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

_____
Alan Wilbur D
_____

JAMES M SANDERS
LTCOL USAF (RET)
247 FORESIDE RD
FALMOUTH ME 04105

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AH10:09

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

14

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

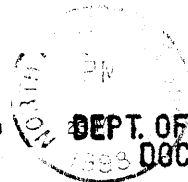

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "J. H. Anderson", is written over a solid horizontal line. Below this line is a dashed horizontal line. To the left of the signature, there is a separate solid horizontal line.

Mr. Gary K. Button
903 Colony Creek Dr.
Lawrenceville, GA 30043

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:09

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

15

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

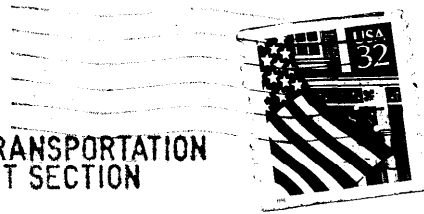

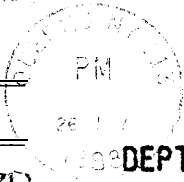

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to an effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

B. H. R. Maberly
309 Whitefield Ln.
Carthage TN 37030

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:09

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

16

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

Bob H. McKinney

---

Bob & Beth Hess :
 92 Brook Rd.
 Falmouth, ME 04105-2204

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
 DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:09

Launch Wagon 1890s
 23 USA

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
 SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
 400 7TH STREET, SW
 WASHINGTON, DC 20591

17

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

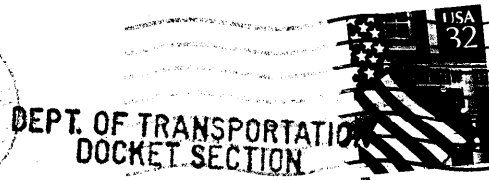

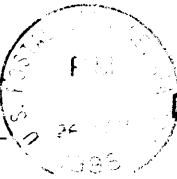

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

_____

Jim & Karen Eaton
4 Black Horse Lane
Hingham MA 02043

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:09

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

18

W-L

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

_____

J. Schweitzer
2020 Utsa Line Way
Accworth, GA 30101

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKET SECTION

98 JUN 11 AM 10:09

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

19

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-37.13
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

---

-----

Donald Robert Millward
1738 Sugar Run Trl
Bellbrook, OH 45305-1175

DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
BOCKET SECTION

98 JUN I I AM 10: 07

MR. RODNEY E. SLATER
SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
400 7TH STREET, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20591

20

RE: DOCKET NO. OST-98-3713
AIRLINE REREGULATION

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As an American Airlines pilot, I am writing to you to express my opposition to any effort to reregulate the airline industry.

Our pilots and many other unionized airline employees were called upon to make financial sacrifices as the industry struggled to adjust to deregulation. Now the major carriers, including American Airlines, are posting strong financial results. It isn't fair to penalize major carriers for their success by giving an artificial advantage to non-union new-entrant carriers, which have not made the same substantial investments in maintenance and training facilities, quality assurance programs and employee benefits.

I urge you to rethink any policy that would tilt the playing field against American Airlines and other major airlines. Otherwise, my fellow employees and I will ultimately pay the price.

Sincerely,

MD-80 FO/ORD

---