Pronomi italiani (italian pronouns)

Gianluca Gérard

1.0 Preposition + pronoun

Person	Italian	English (1)	English (2)
1st sing.	me	me	myself
2nd sing.	te	you	yourself
3rd sing.	se	him, her	him(her)self
1st plur.	noi	us	ourselves
2nd plur.	voi	you	youselves
3rd plur.	loro	them	themselves

1.1 Examples

con me (with me); per te (for you); da se (by himself); in noi (in us); da voi (from you); fra loro (among them).

2.0 Imperative + pronoun or infinitive + pronoun (reflexive)

Person	Italian	English
1st sing.	mi	me
2nd sing.	ti	you
3rd sing.	gli, le (f.)	him, her
1st plur.	ci	us
2nd plur.	vi	you
3rd plur.	gli	them

If these pronouns are used tight togheter with the ‘‘determinative articles’’ (lo, la, li, le) they change with the following rules:

- for all the persons, excepth for the 3rd singular and plural, the ending ‘i’ comes into an ‘e’;
- for the 3rd person singular and plural we add an ‘e’ at the end of the pronoun.

Examples: prendiglielo (take it for him); ricordacelo (remember us about it).

2.1 Examples

2.1.1 Imperative

dammi (giveme); sieditit† (sit down); chiedile (ask her); ascoltaci (hear us); prendigli (take for them).

2.1.2 Infinitive (reflexive)

ricordarmi, ricordarti, ricordargli, ricordarci, ricordarvi, ricordarsi, ricordargli (to remember)

Passa per ricordarmi della lezione. Comes to remember me about the lesson.

3.0 Reflexive verbs rule: pronoun + verb. Note: the person of the verb matches the person of the pronoun!
