

Dear FCC Commissioners, please regard the public comment and outrage over the anti-localism statutes being pushed through the comment process by interests completely self-serving and unattuned to the local networks these broadcasters serve. Ensuring that local content, via news, entertainment, or any other relevant programming, is alive and well on the radio airwaves via FCC legislation is essential to preserving communities in America.