INQUISITOR HUGHES IS GOING AHEAD

Pushing Investigation of Insurance Companies.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.-Convinced that there will not be time before January 1 to get through with all that should be brought out by the investigation. Charles E. Hughes today asked the legislative committee to hold five sessions each week, until the end of the year, and suggested that the inquiry into the affairs of insurance companies be continued by the next Legislature.

There are fifteen companies incorporated in the State, and it is probable that ten of these will come under the mmittee's searchlight.

Thomas F. Rvan will be questioned this week about the details of his purchase from James Hazen Hyde of the controlling stock of the Equitable Life. Mutual's Big Commission.

H. H. Rogers will also be called to tell why the agency committee of the Mutual Life, of which he is chairman, allowed such enormous commissions to paid to Robert H. McCurdy and Louis A. Thebaud, son and son-in-law of Richard A. McCurdy.

Francis Hendricks, State superintendent insurance, and several men connect-Surance Society, may also be called. Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, may be asked particularly concerning the contribution of $225,000, which went through the hands of George B. Cortelyon. No intimation has yet been given as to has yet been given as to whether Mr. Cortelyou is to be called.
