

Know-on-the-Go Traveling Trunk Program

Know-on-the-Go traveling trunks are a fun way to bring American Civil War history into the classroom for students grades four and up. Frequently used by teachers to prepare their students to visit Kennesaw Mountain Battlefield, the trunks are also a valuable resource for classes unable to visit. Available by reservation only, the trunks items such as wearable reproduction uniforms and dresses for students, a teacher's guide, educational books, worksheets and other optional materials.

Because Each Teachers' Needs Are Different...

You may choose from two trunk types:

1. African-Americans, Women & Children During the Civil War
2. The Civil War: Life of a Soldier

Accompanying each trunk is a complete list of items. When you arrive to pick-up your trunk, it will be ready to go because learning should be fun and easy for teachers, too!

Trunk FAQ's

How do I get a trunk?

Due to the extremely high volume of phone calls for trunks and other school programs, we do not accept reservations by phone. You need to complete a reservation form for the type of trunk you want and your preferred date. Once you receive an email confirmation you may come and pick up your trunk. Our apologies, but we are unable to deliver or ship trunks.

Is there a fee?

A refundable $50 deposit (check only) is required per trunk. Your deposit will cover the expense to replace any lost or broken items. If there are any lost or broken items, your check will be held and a check for the remaining balance (if there is a balance) will be returned to you.

How long may I keep a trunk?

You may keep the trunk for one week, with the week beginning on the day you pick up the trunk. You will be emailed or phoned when your trunk is ready for pick-up (average turn-over is two days after receipt of reservation sheet).

What days are the trunks available?
