

Cambridge. LONGFELLOW NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE, 105 Brattle St., 1759. Frame, clapboarding; 2 1/2 stories, rectangular, hipped roof with deck and balustrade, 2 interior chimneys, dormers, slightly projecting pedimented entrance, modillion cornice, side porches, facade articulated by large pilasters, exquisite classical detailing; central hall plan. Georgian. Built by Maj. John Vassall; George Washington's Boston headquarters, 1775-1776; home of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1837-1882, and meeting place for many of his associates. Federal/NPS: HABS.