NOTORIOUS ODESSA DRUG DEALER SENTENCED TO OVER TWENTY YEARS IN FEDERAL PRISON

United States Attorney Johnny Sutton announced today that 28-year-old Rafi Wali McCall, the CEO of Paper Gator Entertainment, a "rap" recording company in Odessa, Texas, was sentenced to 262 months incarceration for federal narcotics violations.

On July 24, 2007, a federal jury convicted McCall of distributing crack cocaine near Gale Pond Elementary School in Odessa, Texas. During the trial, the jury heard testimony that by the summer of 2007, McCall had become one of the most notorious drug dealers in the Odessa area. Testimony revealed that on two occasions, McCall sold crack cocaine to a confidential informant. The testimony also revealed that after he was arrested, he offered the informant $10,000 not to testify against him.

This case was investigated by the Odessa Police Department and is being prosecuted for the government by Assistant United States Attorney Glenn Roque Jackson.
