

AMERICA'S ANNIVERSARY WEEKEND

Friday, May 13, 2007

A Day of Commemorations

12:00-

Current Archaeological Excavations

Historic Jamestowne Visitor Center, Archaearium,
Archaeological Excavations of James Fort- OPENS

The new Theater-in-the-Round features an 18 minute film, shown on the hour and half hour from 9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Theater in the Round

12:15-

Jamestown Rediscovery Archaeologist Tour of James Fort- starts at John Smith Statue

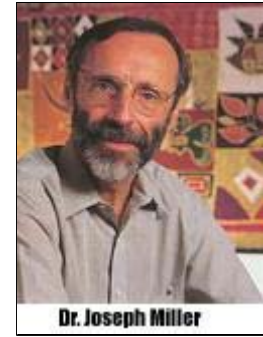

12:30-

Valli Anne portraying Rachel Stanton

Living History Tour, experience Virginia through the eyes of Joan Pierce. "An honest and industrious woman," as described by Captian John Smith, learn how anyone in Virginia can live better than in London - starts at New Towne Virtual Viewer

- 1:00- Address A Tale of Three Cities: Kasbsa in Angola by Dr. Joseph Miller of the University of Virginia - starts at the Historic Jamestowne Anniversary Stage

- 1:30- Ranger Tour relating the history of Jamestown- starts at New Towne Virtual Viewer

2:00-

Red Crooked Sky American Indian Dance Troop. Watch in fascination as the Red Crooked Sky American Indian dance troop promotes positive cultural awareness through traditional and contemporary dance - starts at the Historic Jamestowne Anniversary Stage.

Jeff Ball Contemporary Native American Flute Music - Listen and relax to the sweet, melodic sounds of Contemporary Native American flute music as performed by Jeff Ball - starts at the Historic Jamestowne Anniversary Stage.

- 2:15- Jamestown Rediscovery Archaeologist Tour of James Fort- starts at John Smith Statue

2:30-

Living History Tour, experience Virginia through the eyes of Anthony Johnson: An African American Freeman in 17th Century Virginia. Learn the story of a "Negroe servant" who arrived in Virginia in 1621 and in time became a freeman - starts at New Towne Virtual Viewer.

- 3:00- Address James Fort: The Buried Truth by Dr. William Kelso, Director of Archaeology for APVA Preservation Virginia - starts at the Historic Jamestowne Anniversary Stage.

3:30-

Living History Tour, experience Virginia through the eyes of Joan Pierce. "An honest and industrious woman," as described by Captian John Smith, learn how anyone in Virginia can live better than in London - starts at New Towne Virtual Viewer

- 4:00- The Jamestown Settlers Arrival - Reenactment of the English arrival at Jamestown on May 13, 1607, and early life and activities within Jamestown - starts at the Historic Jamestowne Anniversary Stage.

- 4:30- Last film showing in the Visitor Center

- 5:00- Historic Jamestowne Visitor Center, Archaearium, Archaeological Excavations of James Fort- Closes to the public