

Protect freedom of speech in our great nation. Please consider removing the proposed slew of new FCC regulations that would strangle radio stations' right to broadcast freely. Please do all that is in your power to keep the airways open and radio stations operating without hinderance.