

There is enough unholy radio stations and only a few, a very few, stations that are family friendly. My daughters are going to be taught about God as I was, and those people that don't believe have plenty of other stations they can express their opinion. Please don't allow this to pass on a vote.