ADMINISTRATION'S BUDGET AN EXERCISE IN FISCAL IRRESPONSIBILITY

Rep. Becerra, along with Democratic Leader Nancy Pelosi (CA – 8), hosted a press conference Wednesday, March 23, to highlight the impact the president's fiscal year 2005 budget would have on working families with particular attention to Latinos.

"Once again, the president has shown that tax breaks for the wealthy trump fiscal responsibility, leaving critical govt programs that are the hallmark of American idealism to fend for themselves," Rep. Becerra said. "At a cost of $2.4 trillion and still containing a projected $521 billion deficit, this budget not only fails to deliver on the government's promise to protect the middle class, but also hurts the pocketbooks of Americans for generations to come."

Quick FAQs:

- One in four Latinos drop out of high school, yet the president's budget would eliminate the all-important dropout prevention program.
- Two-thirds of all Latinos in America spend more than one-third of their income on housing – the president's budget cuts 8 grants $791 million below the 2004 level and $2 billion below what is needed.
