

ARMOUR-STINER HOUSE

45 West Clinton Avenue, Irvington

Looking as if it might have landed from a Victorian version of outer space, perhaps something Jules Verne might have imagined, this is the only fully domed octagonal residence in the country. It is one of the largest examples of a unique building type inspired by Orson Squire Fowler, author of A Home for All; or, a New, Cheap, Convenient and Superior Mode of Building. Fowler also wrote books on sex, temperance, tight lacing, and matrimony.
