

Map — Destinations and Trails

Little American Island's quarter mile loop with exhibits tells the story of the Gold Rush of 1893.

Oveson Fish Camp
A glimpse of the area's rich commercial fishing tradition.

Kettle Falls Hotel
Built around 1910, this National Register site was at one time a transient community of over 200 people including lumberjacks, fish buyers, prospectors, bootleggers and tourists. Today the tradition of hospitality continues.

Ash River Visitor Center

Constructed in 1935, historic Meadwood Lodge is now the Ash River Visitor Center. The lodge's superior craftsmanship illustrates the rustic style vacation retreats of the 1930s.

Grassy Bay Cliffs are an impressive sight of pink to light gray lac La Croix granite.
