

INCIDENT MANAGEMENT SITUATION REPORT
 MONDAY, JUNE 25, 2001 - 0530 MDT
 NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS LEVEL 2

CURRENT SITUATION:

One new large fire was reported in California. Two large fires reached containment, one in California and one in Nevada. Initial attack activity was moderate in California, Eastern Great Basin, Southwest, and Rocky Mountain Areas and light elsewhere. Very high to extreme fire indices were reported in Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Oklahoma, Texas, Utah and Wyoming.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AREA LARGE FIRES:

MARTIS, Nevada-Yuba-Placer Ranger Unit, California Department of Forestry. A Unified Command with a California Department of Forestry Type 1 Incident Management Team (Posten) and a National Type 1 Incident Management Team (Gelobeter) is in place. This fire is east of Truckee, CA and is burning primarily on the Humboldt-Toiyabe National Forest. Despite inaccessible terrain hampering containment efforts, crews made good progress on line construction. Secondary lines have been completed.

RIDGE, Mendocino Ranger Unit, California Department of Forestry. This fire is west of Covelo, CA.

The majority of the acreage gain is on the south perimeter of the fire. Crews on this perimeter are hampered by heavy fuel loadings and unfavorable winds. Crews on the north perimeter achieved good progress working toward the Totatlanika River. A structure protection group is assessing threats to homes along the Parks Highway and Windy Creek subdivision.

SURVEY LINE, Fort Wainwright, Department of Defense. This fire is approximately 12 miles southwest of Fairbanks, AK. The fire is in a military limited protection area and is approaching a full protection area. Aircraft have flown the fire and significant activity was observed.

OUTLOOK:

A Pacific trough over California and western Nevada will bring partly to mostly cloudy skies with a few mountain showers or thunderstorms over the Sierra Nevada range. High temperatures will be in the 80's, except for 90 to 105 in the southern California deserts. Minimum relative humidity will range from 20 to 30 percent, with winds from the southwest to northwest at 10 to 20 mph.

Some moisture has moved into central Alaska under weakening high pressure, bringing partly cloudy skies with isolated afternoon showers or wet thunderstorms. High temperatures will be in the 70's, with minimum relative humidity around 40 percent. Winds will be west at 10 mph.

The approach of the Pacific trough will keep a slightly moist airmass over eastern and southern Nevada and Utah bringing partly cloudy skies with isolated afternoon thunderstorms. High temperatures will be 80 to 95, and minimum relative humidity will range from 7 to 17 percent. Winds will be south to southwest at 15 to 25 mph with gusts around 35 mph, except for 10 to 15 mph in eastern Utah.

The Pacific trough will bring more moisture to southeast Idaho. High temperatures will be 70 to 85, and minimum relative humidity will range from 20 to 30 percent. Winds will be southwest at 10 to 20 mph.

A moist southerly flow around a high pressure system will continue over Arizona and New Mexico bringing variable cloudiness, scattered showers and thunderstorms. High temperatures will be in the 80's to mid 90's, and 100 to 105 in the southern Arizona deserts. Minimum relative humidity will range from 10 to 20 percent in southern Arizona. Winds will be southwest at 10 to 20 mph.
