

Peace Corps Peru is looking for trainers in the area of Youth Development to work in the Pre-service Training program for all new Peace Corps Volunteers. The training program is from May 13 -August 31, 2007, which includes the preparation before the arrival of the new Volunteers. The training is based outside of Lima, approximately 40 minutes by car.

This is a full time position (44 hours per week) in this time frame.

Resumes and cover letters should be in by February 27, 2007.

Basic Functions

Working with the Training Manager and the Associate Director for the Youth Development Project, the Technical Trainers plan and deliver sessions, develop training materials and contacts, coordinate integration of technical training with language facilitators and other training staff. The Technical Trainers guide, monitor and evaluate the Trainees from the Youth Development sector in acquiring the knowledge and skills necessary for the sector project.

Qualifications

- Degree in education or related discipline (sociology, counseling)
- Extensive knowledge and experience in a variety of youth institutions and centers
- Experience working in rural Peru or Latin America
- Experience with youth at-risk
- Experience with non-formal education
- Fluency in Spanish and English

Send resume, cover letter and contact information to P.O. Box 18-0094, Lima.