at age fiftysix i'am just to old to stay awake for david letterman. so I was really disappointed when out of no where my west coast and east coast feeds of major networks were gone. When I called dish network they told me 'its the new law' and to contact you. So if you can help I would be appreciative. sincerely, georgina slavich