
CATHOLIC APOSTOLIC CHURCH.

CATHOLIC APOSTOLIC CHURCH.

In 1830 and 1831 several Presbyterians in Scotland and London prayed for a restoration of the "gifts of the Spirit". Members of the Episcopal Church were at the same time looking for such manifestations. In response, gifts of "tongues and prophesying" came, it is said, upon a number of people, some of whom were connected with a Presbyterian church in London, of which the Rev. Edward Irving was pastor. Mr. Irving was identified with the movement, and has often been spoken of as the founder of the Catholic Apostolic Church. But its representatives, while cordially recognizing his services, do not so regard him. The spiritual manifestations were "accompanied by many works of divine power, such as the healing of the sick": and in 1832, after the "reality of the prophetic gift had been fully established by the experience of almost 3 years", the office of apostle was revived, a layman of the Church of England being the first person designated by the Holy Ghost to fill it. Others were designated from time to time until the number was completed and there were 12. Several congregations were organized, and in time the movement extended to other countries.

The first church in the United States was constituted in Potsdam, N. Y., and the second in New York city in 1851.

The Catholic Apostolic Church accepts the 3 ecumenical creeds: the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian; holds to the plenary inspiration of the Scriptures and also to the traditions of the church as sources whence the doctrine of Christ is to be derived. It regards baptism as an ordinance for the conveyance of the new or resurrection life, and the Lord's Supper as a sacrament for the nourishing and strengthening of that life. It believes that the gift of the spirit is conveyed by the laying on of apostles' hands. The doctrine of predestination is accepted, although it is denied that God's mercies are limited to the elect.

In its system of worship the Eucharist has the central place. It is celebrated every Sunday. There is also a daily service, morning and evening. A full ritual is used in public worship.

Apostles, prophets, evangelists, and angels, or chief pastors, are recognized as constituting a fourfold ministry. Angels are pastors of local churches, in which there are also elders, deacons, and deaconesses. Each church is regarded as complete in itself.

The Catholic Apostolic Church has 10 organizations, 1,394 members, 3 church edifices, and church property valued at $66,050.

CHINESE TEMPLES.

CHINESE TEMPLES.

Every Chinese temple is a house of prayer, or worship, but no sermon is preached, no priest installed, no religious instruction given, and no seating accommodations provided. There is always at least one shrine, the more frequented temples having several, so that a number of persons can perform the usual ceremony, each for himself, without being obliged to take turns. The worshipers do not meet in a body, nor is any particular time set for devotions. When about to enter upon a new enterprise, or to take a journey, or when in doubt concerning any particular course of action, the Chinese are careful to consult their gods and patron saints. Every worshiper provides himself with incense sticks, candles, and sacrificial papers, which are generally to be had of attendants at small cost. Offerings of wine and meat are added on special occasions. The candles and incense sticks are lighted and placed in their proper receptacles. If wine is used it is put in minute cups scarcely larger than thimbles, and these are ranged in a row before the shrine. The meat offerings may be roast chicken, roast pig, or any other table luxury. When everything is properly placed the genuflexions begin, and the request is presented. If the answer required is a simple affirmative or negative the worshiper drops a pair of lenticular pieces of wood on the floor a number of times, and calculates the answer from the frequency with which each face turns up. Another method of obtaining responses, particularly when fuller responses are desired, is by shaking a box filled with numbered slips of bamboo, one of which will fall out, and then consulting a book containing numbered answers in Chinese verse.

The interior of Chinese temples is often highly decorated. The walls and ceilings are hung with tablets having inscriptions in the Chinese characters, and there are often rows of lanterns, and embroidered silk umbrellas. Fine wood carving is also to be seen. The decorations are the gifts of worshipers.

Most Chinese temples are free to all. No register is kept of members. Of the 4 temples in New York city, 1 (Chung-wa-kung-saw) claims 7,000 worshipers; Chap-sing-tong, 700; Hok-san-kung-saw, 1,000; Lung-kong-kung-saw, 1,000. Chung-wa-kung-saw is an organization in which every Chinaman in New York is supposed to be interested. Chap-sing-tong admits laundrymen only, and the other temples are supported by those who come from Hok-san and Lung-kong, respectively. A laundryman from the district of Hok-san may therefore be a member of 3 of the temples. For this reason no statistics of members can be given.

Chinese temples are usually well supported. The revenues are derived largely from the privilege, sold at auction to the highest bidder, of selling the articles of worship, which every worshiper must have. Thus, the privilege of selling for the Lung-kong-kung-saw of San Francisco brought, in 1890, $12,365.50; and that for the How-wang-mew, in the same city, $3,961.60.

According to the returns of population there are 107,475 Chinese in the United States, of whom 72,472 are in California, 9,540 in Oregon, 3,260 in Washington, and 2,935, the next largest number, in New York. In view of the fact that 1 of the 4 temples in New York city claims 7,000 worshipers, while the whole state has a Chinese population of less than 3,000, there would seem to be a large discrepancy. If that 1 temple has 7,000 different worshipers, the number of visitors must be greater than the resident Chinese population. Doubtless 7,000 is the number that worship in the temple in the course of a year. In other words, the same individual is counted many times. A considerable number of the Chinese are members of Christian churches.

CHRISTADELPHIANS.

CHRISTADELPHIANS.

John Thomas, M. D., an Englishman, came to this country in 1844 and identified himself with the Disciples of Christ. Soon after his views changed and he became convinced by a study of the bible that the cardinal doctrines of the existing churches correspond with those of the apostate church predicted in scripture. He began to publish his views, and organized a number of societies in this country, Canada, and Great Britain. No name was adopted for these societies until the civil war broke out. The members applied to the government to be relieved from military duty in consequence of conscientious scruples, and finding it necessary to have a distinctive name, that of Christadelphians, or Brothers of Christ, was adopted.

The Christadelphians do not accept the doctrine of the trinity. They hold that Christ was son of God and son of man, manifesting divine power, wisdom, and goodness in working out man's salvation, and attaining unto power and glory by his resurrection. He is the only medium of salvation. The Holy Spirit is an effluence of divine power. They believe in the natural mortality of the soul and that eternal life is only given by God to the righteous; that the devil is the evil principle of human nature; that Christ will shortly come personally to the earth and set up the kingdom of God in place of human governments; that this kingdom will be established in Canaan, where the 12 tribes of Israel will be gathered; that at the end of a thousand years judgment will be pronounced upon all, the just receiving eternal life, the unjust eternal death.

The Christadelphians practice immersion. They have no ordained ministers. Those who speak and conduct services are called "lecturing" or "serving" brethren. Their meetings are, with few exceptions, held in public halls, private houses, and schoolhouses. They have in all 63 organizations, with 1,277 members, who are scattered over 20 states.

CHRISTIANS (CHRISTIAN CONNECTION).

This body, which is commonly known simply as the Christian Connection, but owns only the simple designation "The Christians", had its beginning in the early part of the present century in the union of 3 distinct movements: one, in which Rev. James O'Kelley, of Virginia, a Methodist, was prominent; another, in which Abner Jones, M. D., of Vermont, a Baptist, was first, and a third, in which Barton W. Stone and other Presbyterian ministers in Kentucky and Ohio co-operated. These three movements, each independent and unknown to the leaders of the others until 1806, were alike in taking the bible as the only rule of faith and in rejecting Calvinism. Mr. Stone and many ministers and congregations subsequently united with the Disciples of Christ, with which this denomination is often confounded. They are much alike in many respects; they have no creeds, taking the bible simply as their rule of faith and practice; they emphasize the importance of the union of all believers in Christ; they believe that immersion is the only true form of baptism (a few ministers among the Christians also believe that sprinkling is baptism), and that believers only are its proper subjects, rejecting infant baptism.

The Christians make difference of theological views no bar to membership. Holding to the inspiration and divine authority of the bible, they allow every one to interpret it for himself. They believe in the divinity of Christ and in his pre-existence, and that he made atonement for the sins of all men. They admit to the communion table believers of other denominations, and also receive into membership persons who do not believe in immersion.

In church government the body is congregational. It has, however, annual conferences, composed of ministers and lay delegates from the churches. These conferences receive and ordain pastors, but they can pass no regulations binding on the churches. There is a general convention which meets once in every 4 years, called the American Christian Convention, which cares for the missionary, educational, and other general interests of the church.

At the general convention held in Cincinnati in 1854, in consequence of the adoption of resolutions declaring against slavery, representatives of the southern churches withdrew. The two bodies have agreed upon a form of union by which each retains its general conference.

There are 75 annual conferences, covering in whole or in part 24 states. The strongholds of the denomination are in Ohio, where it has nearly 26,000 members, and Indiana, where it has somewhat less than 20,000. In all there are 90,718 members, 1,281 organizations, 963 church edifices, and church property valued at $1,637,202.

STATISTICS OF CHURCHES.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH (SOUTH).

In consequence of the adoption by the general convention of Christians, held at Cincinnati, in 1854, of resolutions opposed to slavery, and denouncing it as an evil, the churches of the south withdrew and formed a separate organization. The Christian Church (South) is in general agreement in doctrine and practice with the northern churches, and it is claimed by some that the two bodies are now practically one.

The southern church is strongest in North Carolina and Virginia. It has 5 annual conferences, with 143 organizations, 135 church edifices, church property valued at $138,000, and 13,004 communicants.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.

This association represents, in christian work in Kentucky, a number of churches without name, without creed, and without any ecclesiastical system. Each church is entirely independent. The churches claim to be unsectarian. The first was organized in Berea by Mr. John G. Fee. The doctrines preached are those common to evangelical christianity. Immersion is held to be the proper form of baptism, but is not insisted upon. 10 ministers are reported.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS.

Christian Scientists are those who believe that all ills of body and all evils of whatever nature are subject to the healing power of mind or spirit.

Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, of Boston, Mass., claims to have discovered in 1866 and introduced in 1867 the "first purely metaphysical system of healing since the apostolic days". She began in that year to impart information as to the principles of the system. Out of this beginning was developed the Massachusetts Metaphysical College, which was chartered in 1881. Mrs. Eddy, with 6 of her students, constituted the first Christian Scientist Association in 1876. Three years later a Christian Scientist church was organized in Boston, with 26 members. Mrs. Eddy was called to be its pastor the same year, and accepted the position. In 1881 she was ordained. Other churches and associations sprang up in different parts of the country, and in 1886 a National Christian Scientist Association was formed, the first meeting being held in New York city. There are regular organizations in 30 states, the District of Columbia, Oklahoma, and Utah, and Sunday services are held in numerous places where churches have not been organized. There are also 30 or more Christian Science dispensaries. The organ of the denomination, The Christian Science Journal (monthly), publishes many columns of cards of practitioners of the science of mind healing.

The principles of christian science have been set forth authoritatively by Mrs. Eddy. According to her statements all consciousness is mind, and mind is God. There is but one mind and that is the divine mind. This is infinite good, which supplies all mind by reflection instead of subdivision. God is reflected, not divided. Soul is spirit, and spirit is God. There is but one soul and that is God. The flesh is evil, not the soul. Soul is "substance in truth"; matter is "substance in error". Soul, spirit, or mind is not evil; nor is it mortal. Life is eternal. It implies God. Whatever errs is mortal and is a departure from God. Evil is simply the absence of good. Evil is unreal; good only is real. The divine mind is one and indivisible, and therefore never out of harmony. Man is immortal, being coeternal with God. The divine power is able to bring all into harmony with itself. Hence, christian science says to all manner of disease: "'Know that God is all power and all presence, and there is nothing beside Him'; and the sick are healed". "Sickness is a belief, a latent fear, made manifest in the body in different forms of fear, or disease. This fear is formed unconsciously in the silent thought". It is to be dissipated by actual consciousness of the "truth of science" that man's harmony is no more to be invaded than the rhythm of the universe. Suffering exists only in the "mortal mind"; "matter has no sensation and can not suffer". "If you rule out every sense of disease and suffering from mortal mind, it can not be found in the body". All drugs are to be avoided. The only means of cure proposed by christian science is spiritual. Sin, like sickness and death, is unreal. In order to cure it the sinner's belief in its reality must be overthrown.

INDEPENDENT CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN CHRISTIAN UNION.

INDEPENDENT CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN CHRISTIAN UNION.

This denomination had its beginning in the years 1862-1864. Those who led the movement out of which it was formed objected to "political preaching" and to the adoption of resolutions by church bodies favoring the war. They also stood for the idea of christian union. The principles of the denomination are as follows: (1) the oneness of the church of Christ; (2) Christ the only head; (3) the bible our only rule of faith and practice; (4) good fruits the only condition of membership; (5) christian union without controversy; (6) each local church governs itself; (7) partisan preaching discountenanced.

The church claims to be nonpartisan, nonsectarian, and nondenominational, and aims to avoid divisions by eliminating ordinary questions of doctrinal and ecclesiastical controversy. It has 18,214 communicants, who are divided among 17 states and 1 territory. There are 294 organizations, 184 church edifices, and church property valued at $234,450.

CHURCH OF GOD.

CHURCH OF GOD.

The organization of the Church of God is ascribed to Elder John Winebrenner, a young minister of the German Reformed Church. Mr. Winebrenner, while engaged in revival work in his pastoral charge in Harrisburg, Pa., and vicinity, underwent a change of views as to doctrine and polity and became separated from the church. In the course of a few years, his followers having become quite numerous, a distinct organization was effected in October, 1830. The conference thus organized was called an "eldership", which is a new term in ecclesiastical nomenclature, signifying a body of elders or ministers. The oldest eldership is that of east Pennsylvania. A second eldership, that of Ohio, was formed in 1836; a third, that of west Pennsylvania, in 1844, and as the movement spread other elderships came into existence, there being in all 16 of them at present.

The distinctive principles of the Church of God are: (1) the division of believers into sects is contrary to the teachings of the New-Testament; (2) the believers should be known not by human names, but by the scriptural term "Church of God"; (3) creeds are divisive and unnecessary, the bible, without note or comment, being a sufficient rule of faith and practice; (4) three ordinances are binding upon all believers: immersion, washing the feet of the saints, and commemorating the sufferings and death of Christ in communion of bread and wine.

In polity and usage the Church of God is methodistic. Its annual elderships correspond in a measure to Methodist annual conferences, and it has itinerant and local ministers, exhorters, and circuits. Its itinerant ministers are appointed to charges by stationing committees of the various annual elderships. The chief legislative and judicial body is the general eldership, which meets once every 3 years. The presiding officer of the general eldership and of the annual elderships is termed the "speaker".

The Church of God is represented in 14 states and the Indian territory. Its chief strength, however, lies in the state of Pennsylvania, where it originated. More than one-half of the total of communicants is to be found in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. There are 479 organizations in all, with 338 church edifices, and church property valued at $643,185.

CHURCH TRIUMPHANT (SCHWEINFURTH).

CHURCH TRIUMPHANT (SCHWEINFURTH).

The founder and head of this church is George Jacob Schweinfurth, who was born in Marion county, Ohio, in 1853. He entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Michigan, but soon left it and became a disciple of Mrs. Beekman, who, before her death, which occurred in 1883, declared herself the "spiritual mother of Christ in the second coming", and pronounced Schweinfurth the "Messiah of the New Dispensation". He accordingly became the acknowledged head of her followers, and removed the headquarters of the sect from Byron, 9 miles from Rockford, Ill., to the Weldon farm, 6 miles from Rockford, changing the name of the body to The Church Triumphant. A large frame house, called "Mount Zion" or "Heaven", is occupied by Schweinfurth and a number of his disciples. There are also other companies, each of which is presided over by an "apostle" who reads weekly the sermons previously delivered by Schweinfurth at Mount Zion. There are no rites, ceremonies, or forms of worship. The single condition of membership is recognition of Schweinfurth as the "Christ of the Second Coming", and discipleship.

The Church Triumphant accepts the bible as the word of God, but denies the essential divinity of Christ. He was a mere man, but passed through an experience in which he was freed from the power and curse of sin, after which he received the Spirit of God and became divine. Schweinfurth does not claim to be Jesus of Nazareth, but to have received the same spirit and to be equal to him. He claims to be sinless, to perform miracles, and to be able to bestow the spirit on whomsoever he chooses. He also declares his power over sin, not only to save from its curse but to save from its commission.

There are in all 12 organizations and 384 members. All the services are held in private houses with one exception.

CHURCH OF THE NEW JERUSALEM (SWEDENBORGIAN).

CHURCH OF THE NEW JERUSALEM (SWEDENBORGIAN).

The theological writings of Emmanuel Swedenborg, born in Stockholm, Sweden, in 1688, died in London, England, in 1772, led to the organization of the New Jerusalem Church. Its members are often spoken of as Swedenborgians. He was called, according to his own words, "to a holy office by the Lord himself, who most mercifully appeared before me, his servant, in the year 1743, when he opened my sight into the spiritual world, and enabled me to converse with spirits and angels". From that time he began to "publish the various arcana" or sacred truths, seen by or revealed to him, "concerning heaven and hell, the state of man after death, the true worship of God, the spiritual sense of the Word, and many other important matters conducive to salvation and wisdom". His voluminous religious works contain the body of doctrine to which his followers adhere. The greater portion of them consist of the exposition of the spiritual meaning of the scriptures.

The first meeting for organization was held in London in 1783, 11 years after his death. The next year his teachings were set forth in Boston and Philadelphia, and a congregation was established in Baltimore in 1792. This was the beginning of the church in this country. It was gradually established in other cities and towns, and is represented now in 29 states, besides the District of Columbia. It has 154 organizations and 7,095 members or communicants, about a fourth of whom are to be found in Massachusetts.

The doctrines of the New Jerusalem Church declared that God is one in essence, person, and nature, manifesting himself as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the Father being the infinite divine essence, the Son the human organization with which the Father clothed himself to accomplish the redemption of mankind when immersed in sin, and the Spirit being the divine power flowing forth into act; that the Lord accomplished this redemption by fighting against and overcoming the infernal hosts which had long enslaved mankind, and restoring man to spiritual freedom; that life is not created, only the forms which receive it, man's mind and body being organic forms for the reception of life, which is maintained by the constant conjunction of man and God; that man has a spiritual body which is fitted to receive and manifest the divine forces, and the mind or spirit constitutes this spiritual body; that the material body is only the husk, so to speak, and its death is caused by man's resurrection from it; that the spiritual world is a substantial world, the realm of causes, and exists in three divisions, heaven, the world of spirits, and hell; that the world of spirits, which all enter immediately after death, is the place of preparation for heaven or for hell, according to the character brought into it; that the life in this intermediate state is similar to the one in this world, except that it is not a life of probation, but a life devoted to bringing discordant elements in man's nature into harmony, and to receiving instruction; that gradually the scene changes and men rise to heaven or sink to hell, drawn by the irresistible affinities of their true character; that hell is not a place or state of constant punishment, but its inhabitants have all the enjoyments of which their perverted nature is capable, living under restraint of penalties which follow every violation of law; that heaven is a place of useful activity, in which each finds his appropriate sphere of action and happiness, and becomes subject to the process of perfectibility which goes on forever; that in the scriptures there is a spiritual principle or fact corresponding to every natural act and object they record, a spiritual meaning distinct from, yet harmonizing with, and based upon, the natural meaning of every word and sentence; that while the books of the bible were written through various authors, each in his own natural style, it is nevertheless by virtue of the infinite store of truth within it, a divine book, the Lord himself being its author. This view of the bible is one of the chief distinctions of Swedenborgian belief.

The organization of the New Jerusalem Church is a modified episcopacy, each society being, however, free to manage its own affairs. There are associations of societies, generally conforming to state lines, and a general convention composed of representatives of the associations and also of a number of societies which have no associational connection. The service is generally liturgical. A variety of liturgies are in use in the different congregations or societies, the greater number, however, use the "Book of Worship", published by the general convention. Three orders are recognized in the ministry. In connection with each association there is a general pastor, who bears the same relation to the association that a pastor does to a society. There are also pastors of societies and preachers not yet in full orders.
