A TRIBUTE TO SISTER RITA
NOWATZKI OF THE NEW YORK
FOUNDING HOSPITAL

HON. JERROLD NADLER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. NADLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Sister Rita Nowatzki for her distinguished service to the children and families of New York City. A Sister of Charity for over fifty years, Sister Nowatzki has dedicated herself to protecting the most vulnerable members of our community. As she enters her retirement, she remains unwavering in her commitment to speak for those who are voiceless and remind us all of our responsibility to aid the poorest members of our community.

In 1990, Sister Nowatzki joined the New York Foundling Hospital as its public advocate. In the years since, Sister Nowatzki has proven her reputation as an innovative administrator and masterful advocate. She produced "The Foundling," the first book documenting the Hospital's 137-year history of aiding orphans, poor families and children. She raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for the United Way, saved crucial family services in the New York City budget, and lit up the Empire State Building every April to commemorate Child Abuse Prevention month. As an ardent advocate for our children's well-being, Sister Nowatzki has worked at the city and state level to craft policies and programs that will assist the most vulnerable members of our community. One major component of the work of Sister Nowatzki is her desire to instill in young people an interest and commitment to participate in government and public policy and to take an active role in the issues that affect them. As a result, we know that her legacy will live on in the Hunter College public service scholars she has trained throughout the years.

Sister Rita Nowatzki is a passionate, empathetic and nurturing Sister of Charity. Her dedicated work to promote social justice will benefit New York for years to come. As much as we will miss her ever-vigilant leadership, we know that her spirit of compassion will continue to grace us. As she begins the next chapter of her life, we thank her wholeheartedly for her tireless work to make our city a better place, and we wish her the very best in the years to come.

HONORING THE GIRL SCOUTS OF AMERICA

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, whereas, Tuesday, March 12, 2002, marks the 90th Anniversary of Girl Scouts of the USA, founded by Juliette Gordon Low in 1912 in Savannah, Georgia. Throughout its long and distinguished history, Girl Scouts and Golden Valley Council, the pre-eminent organization for girls, has inspired girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, and patriotism. Girl Scouting will lead businesses and communities to teach girls the skills needed to take active roles in math, science, and technology careers and to fulfill our country's economic needs. Through Girl Scouting, every girl, everywhere grows strong, gains self-confidence and skills for success, and learns her duty to the world around her. Through participation in Girls' Voices, a national community service project, every girl will learn to use her own voice to address an issue of concern to her and perhaps make a change for the better in her community. Some fifty million women have enjoyed the benefits of the Girl Scouts program, as an American tradition, for 90 years. Now, therefore, I GEORGE RADANOVICH, by virtue of the authority vested in me as a U.S. Representative, 19th District, for the State of California do hereby proclaim the week of March 10–16 as Girl Scout Week.

IN TRIBUTE TO JOSEPH WATTS

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, on March 19, 2002 the Council of Senior and Centers and Services of New York City will host a surprise retirement party for Joseph Watts. At the risk of spoiling the surprise, I rise today to pay my personal tribute to a remarkable community leader. Mr. Joseph Watts has proven to be an exceptional person committed to the pursuit of a successful career and giving back to the community throughout his life. In 1962 he graduated from the American Academy of Funeral Service in the State of New York and embarked upon a successful career in Funeral Service. Mr. Watts has contributed a great deal to the comfort of the bereaved in New York. Since the 1970's he has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Funeral Directors Association and Regional Governor of District 6 of the New York State Funeral Directors Association. He has also served as an often honored and recognized leader of many national and international associations of Funeral Directors. These professional honors have recognized the extraordinary contribution that Mr. Watt has made throughout his professional life to his chosen profession and to his community as well.

Among the professional honors Mr. Watts received are: New York State Funeral Director of the Year in 1981; a report for President Carter on Funeral Industry and Federal Trade Commission with impact on small businesses; the International Order of the Golden Rule for "Service to the Community and Profession"; honored by the White House On Social Security: "The Long View—The Effect of Social Security Reforms on the Homeless, Poor and
