2000 NIST Spanish-Speaking Speaker Recognition Evaluation License Agreement

In the remainder of this document, the term User refers to _____ of _____ and the term User's research group refers to _____.

This letter describes the terms of an agreement between User and the Dept. of Audio-Visual and Communications Engineering, EUIT Telecomunicacion, Universidad Politecnica de Madrid, Spain (from now on 'UPM'), in which User will receive material as specified below. The 2000 Spanish-Speaking Speaker Recognition Evaluation Kit is composed of telephone speech in Castilian Spanish. The data was taken from the AHUMADA corpus and is being distributed by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) for purposes of the 2000 NIST Speaker Recognition Evaluation.

Under this agreement, User will receive several computer files containing speech and/or text data. User agrees to use the material received under this agreement only for purposes of the 2000 NIST Speaker Recognition Evaluation. The license for evaluation use will be valid until September 30, 2000, at which time user agrees to delete the corpus from any computer or media onto which it has been copied and return all files to NIST. If files are not returned by October 31, 2000, User agrees to pay a US$600 fee to UPM. User further agrees not to disclose, copy or redistribute the material to others outside of the User's research group. User agrees to mention UPM in the form of reference in all scientific and technical publications or communications (books, chapters, papers, contributions, texts, documents, etc.) authored by User or any other person belonging to User's research group and derived from the 2000 NIST Speaker Recognition Evaluation. This mention will explicitly reference paper by J. Ortega-García et al., "AHUMADA: A Large Speech Corpus in Spanish for Speaker Identification and Verification", IEEE Intl. Conf. on Acoustics, Speech and Signal Processing, ICASSP-98, Seattle (Wa, USA), Vol. II, pp. 773-776, May 1998.

User agrees that UPM does not warrant the accuracy, completeness, currentness, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose of the information. In no event will the UPM be liable to any authorized user, or anyone else for any loss or injury caused in whole or in part by its negligence or contingencies beyond its control in procuring, compiling, interpreting, editing, writing, reporting or delivering the information, or any errors, omissions or inaccuracies in the information, regardless of how caused. In no event will the UPM be liable to the organization, any authorized user or anyone else for any decision made or action taken by the organization or any authorized user in reliance upon any part of the information or for any consequential, direct, special or similar damages, even if advised of the possibility of such damages.
