Summer Camp Retreat

Miss your camp friends, counselors and activities? Can't wait for summer? This is a weekend for experienced and first-time campers to enjoy summer camp activities, such as hiking, arts, dance, and much more! Cuyahoga Valley Environmental Education Center. For more information call (800) 642-3297 or visit www.cvnpa.org.

A Fugitive's Path: Escape on the Underground Railroad

In this interactive program, visitors travel to the year 1852 and become fugitives from the bonds of slavery. They experience firsthand what slaves encountered during their bid for freedom. On their journey they meet abolitionists, slave hunters, free blacks, and Quakers—some of whom are helpful; some, indifferent; and others, treacherous. Reservations required. Fee: $15 and $12 Western Reserve Historical Society members. Hale Farm & Village, tours every 20 minutes departing 6 p.m. through 8:20 p.m. To register call (330) 666-3711.

Amphibians on the Move

Each spring, hundreds of amphibians venture from within the forest to vernal or temporary pools to breed. Migrating salamanders will remain at the pools for only a few days before returning to the underground depths of the forest. Join Cleveland Metroparks Naturalist Peggy Jarrett and National Park Service Ranger Paul Motts for a 2-part program on migrating amphibians. Part I will introduce the amphibians of the Cuyahoga Valley. Participants registering for Part I will be placed on the "Amphibian Hotline" and be notified during peak migration for Part II, an evening hike to a vernal breeding pool. To register call (440) 526-1012. Brecksville Nature Center, 7:30-9:30 p.m.

Changing Seasons

Early spring is a great time for bird watching, as some winter birds linger and spring birds start to arrive. Golden-crowned kinglets and red-breasted nuthatches frequent in the protective evergreens, and bluebirds are often seen in the open fields along the 2.75 mile Tree Farm Trail.

Women of the Wilderness: New Program for Women Teaches Outdoor Living Skills

Residents of Northeast Ohio have the unique opportunity to spend time exploring natural places because of the easy access to Cuyahoga Valley National Park. But how many people have the opportunity to leave their cell phones and computers behind to spend time in the wilderness with little more than what nature has to offer? Through a new program offered by Cuyahoga Valley National Park Association, women have the chance to learn outdoor living skills or sharpen skills they may already have. The weekend program runs from Friday at 6 p.m. through Sunday. Sessions include how to prepare for a hike; how to cook a full meal over a campfire; learning about edible plants of Ohio; and orienteering, the skill of using maps and a GPS unit to plan a travel route. Pre-registration is required. Fee: $165 for non-members (includes a 1-year CVNPA membership) and $135 for CVNPA members. One night only: $100 for non-members, $75 for members. Cuyahoga Valley Environmental Education Center. For more information call (330) 657-2796 ext. 107 or visit www.cvnpa.org.

Women of the Wilderness: New Program for Women Teaches Outdoor Living Skills

Residents of Northeast Ohio have the unique opportunity to spend time exploring natural places because of the easy access to Cuyahoga Valley National Park. But how many people have the opportunity to leave their cell phones and computers behind to spend time in the wilderness with little more than what nature has to offer? Through a new program offered by Cuyahoga Valley National Park Association, women have the chance to learn outdoor living skills or sharpen skills they may already have. The weekend program runs from Friday at 6 p.m. through Sunday. Sessions include how to prepare for a hike; how to cook a full meal over a campfire; learning about edible plants of Ohio; and orienteering, the skill of using maps and a GPS unit to plan a

Cuyahoga Valley Heritage Series: John Gorka

John Gorka is known for applying his rich baritone vocals to a wide range of song forms - intimate confessional songs about love and loss, humorous observations about daily life in his neighborhood, poignant commentary on political moods, and exuberant explosions of unmitigated joy. For those who come to hear him sing, it is Gorka's honest writing and ability to say it all with an economy of words that keep them coming back for more. Admission unless otherwise noted: $15 adults, $10 CVNPA members, and $5 children 3 - 12. General seating. Advance sales available by calling (330) 657-2909. All concerts are held at Happy Days Visitor Center and begin at 8 p.m. unless otherwise stated. Doors open at 7 p.m.

Full Moon Hikes

The Full Budding Flower Moon - Mid-spring in the Cuyahoga Valley provides an ideal balance for spring annual wildflowers. These small, delicate, but predictable yearly bloomers exploit the niche in time following the last snow and freezing temperatures of winter, and before the shade of taller deciduous trees limits the available sunlight reaching the valley's ground. Join a park ranger for a moderate 3-mile walk on the Towpath and Hale Farm Connector trails just prior to the full moon. Hunt Farm, 8 - 10 p.m.

Cuyahoga Valley Heritage Series: Peggy Seeger and John McCutcheon

With more than 20 solo discs and 100 recordings with other performers, Peggy Seeger is considered to be among North America's finest female folksingers. Having taken a leading role in the British folk music revival, not only as a singer and instrumentalist but as a theorist and songwriter, Peggy has the spectacular ability to deliver her classic folk work in a timeless fashion audiences love. Johnny Cash once referred to John McCutcheon as the most impressive instrumentalist he ever heard. He is a master of a dozen different traditional instruments, and his songwriting ability has been hailed by critics and singers around the globe. John's music has garnered every imaginable honor and, whether traditional or from his huge catalog of original songs, has the profound mark of place, family, and strength. Full Moon Hikes

The Full Flower Blue Moon - Some say the second full moon of the month is a blue moon, yet others disagree. But May is always a month of flowers and plenty for both vegetation and wildlife in the Cuyahoga Valley. Leaves have returned to trees and shrubs, often obscuring our views of the splendid evening sky during this easy, 3.5 mile Towpath walk north from Boston. Boston Store, 8:30 - 10:30 p.m.
