PART 5: ORGANIZATIONS REQUIRING HEIGHTENED SCRUTINY

Most supporting organizations further legitimate charitable purposes. However, some taxpayers may seek to shield assets inappropriately through supporting organizations. This has resulted in the need for heightened scrutiny of supporting organizations generally to screen for those where there is a significant potential for abuse. The typical Type I or II supporting organization that supports a hospital, university, or other large charitable institution generally does not raise the private benefit concerns that require heightened scrutiny. The questions below are aimed at identifying situations that raise potential for impermissible private benefit. Additional questions needed to develop an issue should be tailored to the organization's specific situation.

Section I – Potential Promoters

For purposes of completing this guide sheet, the term "promoter" refers to a person who organizes or assists in the organization of a partnership, trust, investment plan, or any other entity or arrangement that is to be sold to a third party. The concern is that the partnership, trust, etc., is designed to be used or is actually used by that third party to obtain tax benefits not allowable by the Internal Revenue Code.
