

I-566, Interagency Record of Request - A, G or NATO Dependent Employment Authorization or Change/Adjustment to/from A, G or NATO Status

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Instructions

NOTE: Please read these instructions carefully. If you need more space to complete an answer, use a separate sheet(s) of paper. Write your name and Alien Registration Number (A #), if you have one, and your Personal Identification Number (PID), if you have one, at the top of each sheet and indicate the number of the item to which the answer refers.

Use Form I-566 to provide necessary information to DOS, DOD, NATO/HQ SACT and USCIS to establish your eligibility to request certain immigration benefits. Such benefits may be available to:

- An eligible dependent of an A, G or NATO nonimmigrant requesting employment authorization.
- An A, G or NATO nonimmigrant requesting a change to another nonimmigrant status; or if you are currently in another nonimmigrant status and have been offered a position that requires you and any dependents to be reclassified as an A, G or NATO nonimmigrant; or
- An A, G or NATO nonimmigrant requesting adjustment to lawful permanent resident.

Form I-566 generally accompanies other forms. There is no filing fee for the I-566.

Definitions.

A # - Alien Registration Number assigned to an alien's administrative file.

8 CFR - Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations.

Certifying officer or official: A chief of a diplomatic mission, international organization director or authorized deputy, NATO member state official or NATO/HQ SACT Legal Advisor who is authorized to certify information about an applicant.

PID: Personal Identification Number. This is the number provided to eligible A and G nonimmigrants by the DOS.

Principal alien: A nonimmigrant admitted to work exclusively for a foreign government, international organization, or NATO in A, G or NATO status from whom family members derive their A, G or NATO status.

Statement from prospective employer: A statement on the employer's letterhead identifying the dependent. It must describe the position offered, duties to be performed, the salary offered, hours to be worked and verify that the dependent possesses the qualifications for the position. The statement must include the phone number, name and original signature of the person making the statement.

Statement from school: A statement on the letterhead of the dependent's post-secondary school that identifies the dependent, certifies that he or she is a full-time student, identifies the courses being taken, the credit hours being carried and provides the expected graduation date. The statement must include the phone number, name and original signature of the school official making the statement.

Statement from physician: A statement on the letterhead of the dependent's physician identifying the dependent and the certifying physician. It must identify the dependent's condition, describe the symptoms, provide a prognosis and certify that the dependent is physically/mentally unable to establish, re-establish or maintain a home of his or her own. The statement must include the phone number, name and original signature of the physician making the statement.

DOS Forms.

DS-2003, Notification of Appointment of Foreign Diplomatic Officer and Career Consular Officer.

DS-2004, Notification of Appointment of Foreign Government Employee.

When Should I Use Form I-566?

Use Form I-566 to facilitate the application process for various benefits that may be available to you if you are in, or wish to be in, A, G or NATO nonimmigrant status. This form provides information needed to identify you and the person from whom your status is, or will be, derived (the principal alien). Form I-566 assists government agencies and organizations in the exercise of their responsibility to adjudicate applications for immigration benefits, including requests for employment authorization and change or adjustment of status. The government agencies and organizations involved in the process are the:

- Department of State (DOS);
- Department of Defense (DOD);
- North Atlantic Treaty Organization/Headquarters, Supreme Allied Commander Transformation (NATO/HQ SACT); and
- U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

You must use this form if:

1. You are applying for employment authorization as an eligible A-1, A-2, G-1, G-3, G-4 or NATO 1-6 dependent. (Definitions and eligibility requirements may be found in 8 CFR 214.2(a), 214.2(g) and 214.2(s)); or
2. You are applying for a change or adjustment of status to, or from, A, G or NATO status.

USCIS Forms.

I-94, Arrival/Departure Record, issued to nonimmigrants upon arrival in the United States.

I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker.

I-407, Abandonment by Alien of Status as Lawful Permanent Resident.

I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status.

I-508, Waiver of Rights, Privileges, Exemptions and Immunities.

I-508F, form used by French nationals in conjunction with the I-508.

I-551, Alien Registration Receipt Card.

I-539, Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status.

I-765, Application for Employment Authorization.

How Do I File Form I-566?

A separate Form I-566 must be filed for each individual seeking an immigration benefit. Follow these steps to complete your request:

Step 1 - Reason for Filing Form I-566

Step 2 - Fill Out the Form I-566

Step 3 - Submit the Form I-566

Notice

USCIS wants to make sure that you receive the requested benefit. To do this, we may ask for more evidence, interview you and/or conduct an investigation. If you give us false documents, misrepresent facts or otherwise engage in fraud, USCIS will take appropriate action. This means we will not only deny your request, you may lose current and future immigration benefits. You may also face penalties, including criminal and/or civil prosecution leading to fines and/or imprisonment.

Step 1. Reason for Filing Form I-566.

Dependent Employment Authorization.

Your request for employment authorization as an A, G or NATO dependent may be based on either:

1. A formal, written bilateral agreement between the United States and the country which employs the principal alien;
2. A de facto arrangement between the United States and the country which employs the principal alien (employment authorization under a de facto arrangement requires that the principal is a national of the country which employs him/her); or

3. The G-4 dependent employment regulations found in 8 CFR 214.2(g).

If you have a question about which provision may apply to you, contact the diplomatic mission, international organization, NATO/HQ SACT or DOD command that employs the principal alien.

If one of the provisions in 1, 2 or 3 applies to you, you must also show that you are an eligible dependent of a principal alien. Eligible dependents are the:

- Spouse or unmarried child under age 21; or
- Dependent unmarried son or daughter who is a full-time, post-secondary student between age 21 and 23 years (or between age 21 and 25 under certain bilateral agreements); or the
- Dependent unmarried son or daughter who is mentally or physically unable to care for him or herself and cannot establish his or her own household.

If you meet one of these conditions and believe you are eligible to apply for employment authorization, complete Parts 1, 2, 3 (Check Box "1a" or "1b"), 4 and 5 on Form I-566.

Evidence requirements.

- If you are filing as the spouse or unmarried child under age 21:
  - Bilateral agreement - submit documentation as specified in the applicable agreement.
  - De facto arrangement or G-4 regulations - submit a statement from your prospective employer.
- If you are filing as the dependent unmarried son or daughter who is a full-time, post-secondary student between ages 21 and 23 years (or between ages 21 and 25 under certain bilateral agreements):
  - Bilateral agreement - submit documentation as specified in the applicable agreement and a statement from your school.
  - De facto arrangement or G-4 regulations - submit a statement from your prospective employer and school.
- If you are filing as the dependent unmarried son or daughter who is mentally or physically unable to care for yourself and cannot establish your own household:
  - Bilateral agreement - submit documentation as specified in the applicable agreement and a statement from your physician.
  - De facto arrangement or G-4 regulations - submit a statement from your prospective employer and physician.
- If you are requesting an extension of your employment authorization, submit the above noted required documents and any other documents required by the principal alien's sponsoring agency.

- Marital Status - Check the appropriate box. If you are divorced or widowed, mark "Not Married."
- A # - This is your file number. If you do not have an A number or do not know it, leave this blank.
- Social Security # - Give your U.S. Social Security number. If you do not have one, leave this blank.

- I-94 # - Give the number on the Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Document, you received upon your most recent admission into the United States.
- DOS Personal Identification # (PID) - This is the number provided to eligible A and G nonimmigrants by the DOS.
- Date of Last Entry into the U.S. - Give the date you last entered the United States.
- Current Immigration Status - Give your current status. If you changed status after admission to the United States, give your new status.

Part 2 - Information about principal alien.

- If you are a dependent family member filing for employment authorization or change/adjustment of status to or from an A, G or NATO nonimmigrant status, complete this part.

Part 3 - Type of request.

- Check and fill in any boxes that apply to your request.

Part 4 - Certification.

- Sign and date the Form I-566 (both copies). If both copies of the form are not signed, your request will be returned as incomplete. A parent or guardian may sign, if appropriate.

Part 5 - Your personal information.

- You, the person making the request, must complete this part to assist the agencies involved in responding to your request.

Parts 6, 7 and 8 are for official use only.

- This page, with only Part 5 filled in, must be submitted with your request. You, the requester, do not fill in any of Parts 6, 7 and 8.

Step 3. Submitting the Form I-566.

Your Form I-566 must include the following items.

- Your signed and completed Form I-566. Two (2) copies of both pages of the form must be submitted. Both copies must have an original signature in Part 4.

NOTE: If your request is urgent, you may so indicate by attaching a written request. Every effort will be made to expedite processing.

- Filing fee. There is no fee for filing Form I-566. However, there may be a filing fee for the associated petition or application. If the petition or application is submitted with this request, read the instructions on the associated form for fee information.

- Evidence. Attach copies of the front and back of the documents you need to support your request. See Step 1, Reason for Filing Form I-566, for detailed document requirements. Do not send original documents unless instructed to do so.

NOTE: Documents not in English must have a full English translation. The translator must provide a statement that the translation is complete and correct and that he or she is competent to translate the foreign language into English.

- Submit your Form I-566. See the following to determine how your I-566 is to be submitted.

If You Are Requesting Employment.

NOTE: A completed and signed Form I-765 must be attached to the Form I-566, and include all required documentation. See Form I-765 instructions for additional information.

Submit your request as follows:

- A and G Dependents: Submit your complete Form I-566 package, including the Form I-765, to the DOS office in Washington, D.C. through your diplomatic mission or international organization. In New York City, the United Nations (UN) and UN missions should submit the package to the U.S. Mission to the UN (USUN).

The DOS or USUN will forward favorably endorsed requests directly to USCIS. If your Form I-765 application is approved, USCIS will transmit your employment authorization in accordance with current procedures.

- NATO Dependents: Submit your complete Form I-566 package, including the Form I-765, to NATO/HQ SACT Legal Affairs, 7857 Blandy Road, Suite 100, Norfolk, VA 23551-2490. Questions regarding the process or document requirements may be directed to HQ SACT by telephoning (757) 747-3640.

If a bilateral dependent employment agreement contains a numerical limitation on the number of dependents authorized to work, NATO/HQ SACT or DOD will consult with DOS to determine whether this numerical limitation has been reached. NATO/HQ SACT or DOD will forward favorably endorsed requests directly to USCIS.

If your Form I-765 application is approved, USCIS will transmit your employment authorization in accordance with current procedures.

If You Are Requesting a Change / Adjustment of Status. - Submit your request as follows:

- Submit the following requests to your diplomatic mission, international organization or NATO/HQ SACT.

- Change of nonimmigrant status to A, G or NATO status.
The diplomatic mission, international organization or NATO/HQ SACT will forward your Form I-566 and Form I-539 application package to the DOS/Visa Office or USUN. the DOS/Visa Office or USUN will forward favorable endorsements to USCIS.
- Section 247(a), immigrant to A or G nonimmigrant.
Upon receipt of your Form I-566 with a favorable DOS endorsement, submit both copies of it, your Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) and Form I-407 to the USCIS office having jurisdiction (see instructions on Form I-407).
- Submit the following request directly to DOS/ Visa Office or USUN.
- Change to other nonimmigrant status from A, G or NATO.

Upon receipt of a favorable endorsement from the DOS/Visa Office or USUN, submit both copies of the Form I-566, your Form I-94, Form I-539 or Form I-129 (as appropriate), and all documentation required to establish eligibility for the requested status to the USCIS office having jurisdiction (see instructions on Forms I-539 or I-129).

- Submit the following request directly to the USCIS office having jurisdiction (see instructions on Form I-485.)
- Adjustment from A, G or NATO nonimmigrant to immigrant.
NOTE: For such request, a DOS/USUN/NATO/HQ SACT favorable endorsement is not required prior to USCIS adjudication of the adjustment application.
- A-1, A-2, G-1 or G-2 nonimmigrant applying under Section 13 of the Act of September 11, 1957.
USCIS will forward this request to the DOS/Visa Office or USUN, as appropriate. The DOS/Visa Office or USUN will advise USCIS of its official position, the date of onset and termination of status, and whether there are any objections to the requested adjustment under Section 13.

Processing Information.

Our goal at USCIS is to process all requests fairly. The processing time will vary depending on the specific circumstances of each case. We may reject an incomplete request. We may deny your request if you do not give us the required information or do not go to a scheduled interview.

Privacy Act Notice. USCIS will use the information on Form I-566 to determine eligibility for the requested immigration benefit. We may provide information on your request to other government agencies.

Do You Need USCIS Forms or Information? To request USCIS forms, call our toll-free forms line at 1-800-870-3676. You may also obtain USCIS forms and information about immigration laws and regulations by calling 1-800-375-5283 or from USCIS internet website at www.uscis.gov.

Use InfoPass to Make an Appointment. As an alternative to waiting in line for assistance at your local USCIS office, you can now schedule an appointment through our internet-based system, InfoPass. To access the system, visit our website at www.uscis.gov. Use the InfoPass appointment scheduler and follow the screen prompts to set up your appointment. InfoPass generates an electronic appointment notice that appears on the screen. Print the notice and take it with you to your appointment. The notice gives the time and date of your appointment, along with the address of the USCIS office.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. You are not required to respond to this form unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. We try to create forms and instructions that are accurate, can be easily understood and impose the least possible burden on you to provide us with information. Often this is difficult because some immigration laws are very complex. The estimated average time to complete and file this form is 15 minutes. If you have comments regarding the accuracy of this estimate, or suggestions for making this form simpler, you may write to: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Management Division, 111 Massachusetts, Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20529; OMB No. 1615-0027. Do not mail your request to this address.
