

Old Pasadena

Old Pasadena is best known on New Year's Day for the Tournament of Roses parade it hosts. But the city is also a favorite among pedestrians, who fill the sidewalks at night to window shop. This 22-block neighborhood area is filled with 200 boutiques, art galleries, retail stores, restaurants, cozy outdoor cafes, cinemas and clubs. We recommend you just walk around to take in the area and decide amongst over 100 restaurants what appeals to you. Entertainment in Old Pasadena runs the gamut from theaters to cinemas to art galleries. At night this district has an abundance of live music and dancing venues.
