

Effective 2007 – Early Implementation 2006

Continuing resolutions (CRs) are joint resolutions (passed by the House and the Senate and signed by the President) that provide continuing appropriations for a fiscal year. Continuing resolutions are enacted when Congress has not yet passed one or more appropriations bills for a fiscal year or when the President has vetoed congressionally passed appropriations bills. Lacking appropriations, most programs can not incur new obligations.

□ Continuing Resolutions usually do not appropriate specific sums of money. Instead the CRs provide "formulas" for calculating the amounts available for continuing programs at minimal levels. Continuing resolutions provide funds for projects and activities. In most cases, the term "programs and projects" refers to appropriation accounts, but not always.¹

After a CR is enacted into law, the Office of Management and Budget will issue a bulletin to automatically apportion amounts made available by the CR. The amount available during the period covered by the CR will be further defined in the bulletin based on the law.

Generally, warrants are not issued under a CR in anticipation that the appropriation act will be passed. However, FMS may issue a warrant under the following instances:

- □ The CR covers specific mandatory federal payments or
- On a case by case basis after the second quarter of the fiscal year; and/or
- $\Box$  The CR covers the entire year.<sup>3</sup>

Although a warrant may not be issued, agencies' Fund Balance With Treasury (FBWT) should be recorded under a CR. The CR entitles agencies to FBWT. SFFAS No. 7, Accounting for Revenue and Other Financing Sources and Concepts for Reconciling Budgetary and Financial Accounting, paragraph 71 states that appropriations should be recognized in capital as "unexpended appropriations" (and among assets as "funds with Treasury") when made available for apportionment, even if a Treasury Warrant has not yet been received, or the amount has not been fully apportioned.

Effective 2007 – Early Implementation 2006

Furthermore, until FMS processes a warrant, agencies' FBWT will not be posted to its Central Accounting System. The balance in this account will not match the FMS 6653. However, agencies will post its normal receipt and disbursement activity using USSGL Account 1010, which should match the balance on the FMS 6653. Additionally, agencies should note that the new account will not be reported in FACTSII.

To comply with SFFAS No. 7, the USSGL Division is proposing to create a new account and new transactions that agencies shall use to report its FBWT under a CR. The proposed new USSGL account 1090, Fund Balance With Treasury under a Continuing Resolution, will crosswalk to line 1, Fund Balance With Treasury, on the Balance Sheet. Currently, USSGL account 1010, Fund Balance With Treasury, crosswalks to Line 1 of the Balance Sheet. The net of USSGL accounts 1010 and 1090 should reflect the funding provided under the CR adjusted by normal receipt and disbursement activity (within authorized funding level).

This scenario illustrates the use of the account, corresponding accounting transactions and reporting requirements agencies should use to record FBWT while under a CR.

USSGL Account Illustrated

Account Title: Fund Balance With Treasury under a Continuing Resolution

Account Number: 1090 Normal Balance: Debit

Definition: The amount equal to the funding provided under a continuing resolution and apportioned in accordance with OMB's automatic apportionment bulletin. The balance in this account will adjust to zero when FMS processes a warrant and must adjust to zero by yearend.

Justification: To record Fund Balance With Treasury under a continuing resolution when a warrant is not issued. SFFAS Standard 7 states that appropriations should be recognized in capital as "unexpended appropriations" (and among assets as "funds with Treasury") when made available for apportionment, even if a Treasury Warrant has not yet been received, or the amount has not been fully apportioned. Effective 2007 – Early Implementation 2006

This scenario presents the first and second quarters of a fiscal year. During the first quarter, the agency is notified that its appropriations bill has not been signed and the agency is under a continuing resolution. In quarter two, the agency's appropriation bill has been signed. Three separate situations are presented in quarter two, which are as follows:

Situation 1: The agency received the exact amount in the appropriation act.

Situation 2: The agency received an additional amount in the appropriation act.

The agency received less than the original amount indicated in the appropriation act.

The following quarterly statements are presented: SF 133, Report on Budget Execution and Budgetary Resources, Consolidated Balance Sheet, Consolidated Statement of Net Cost and Consolidated Statement of Changes in Net Position. The statements are based on fiscal year 2006 crosswalks.

After careful review of the CR, in conjunction with the agency budget office and in compliance with OMB's automatic apportionment bulletin, it was determined that the annualized level of the appropriation provided under the continuing resolution is $100,000. Since the seasonal obligations for this account are normally higher than the pro rata share and the CR covers the first 21 days of the fiscal year, the amount available for obligation under the CR is $5,783.<sup>4</sup>
