EVIDENCE REQUIRED IN SUPPORT OF A DEPENDENCY CLAIM

1. State the inclusive dates the deceased was employed during the 12 months immediately preceding death. Give the names and addresses of his employers during that period, the rate of pay, and the total amount earned in each job.

2. State whether the deceased was living away from home at any time during the 12-month period before death. If so, give the inclusive dates. Forward any canceled checks, money order receipts, letters, or other evidence of the fact that the deceased contributed to your support during that time.

3. If you are now employed, give your Social Security account number, the name of your employer, your wages, and your occupation. If not now employed, explain why.

4. State whether your husband (or wife) survives. If he is employed, give his Social Security account number, employer's name, amount of wages, and occupation. If not employed, state why.

5. Furnish names and relationship to you of all persons who lived in the same household with you during the year preceding the death, and the monthly amount contributed by each toward support of the household.
