Parties may deliver to Chambers courtesy copies of other documents.

- C. Do NOT fax or email copies of documents to Chambers unless specifically authorized to do so by the Court.

3. EMERGENCIES

- A. Applications for restraining orders or for other immediate relief shall be filed electronically through the CM/ECF system (unless the matter is to be sealed) and all related communications with the Court must be through the Case Manager. Such applications shall be presented to the Court by the Case Manager following counsel's affirmation that the opposing party has been contacted and that both parties can be available for a conference before the Court, or an explanation of why such contact is not legally required. Ex parte applications for restraining orders will not be entertained by the Court unless the requirements of FED. R. CIV. P. 65(b) have been satisfied.
- B. Motions for extension of deadlines or cut-off dates in the Docket Control Order are not emergencies. (See Continuances, § 4 below.)

4. CONTINUANCES

- A. Agreements or joint motions among counsel for continuance are not binding on the Court. Motions for continuance will be granted only at the Court's discretion.
- B. Vacation requests will be respected if they are made well in advance of a trial setting.
- C. A trial will not be continued because of the unavailability of a witness. Counsel are expected to anticipate such possibilities and should be prepared to present testimony by written deposition, videotaped deposition, or by stipulation.

5. APPEARANCES AND CONFERENCES

- A. An attorney who appears at a hearing or conference MUST
 - 1. be familiar with the case,
 - 2. have authority to bind the client, and
 - 3. be in charge for that appearance.
- B. All counsel wishing to appear at a conference or hearing by telephone must submit a written request by email to the Case Manager as far in advance of the conference as reasonably possible. The Court will attempt to accommodate such requests.
- C. Counsel and pro se litigants shall notify the Case Manager immediately in writing of the parties' settlement of any matter before the court. Upon receipt of a notice that the entire case is settled, the Court may enter a conditional order of dismissal.
- D. Failure to appear when notified of a setting may subject the attorney and/or his or her client to sanctions, including dismissal for want of prosecution and/or other appropriate order or judgment.
- E. Motions for admission pro hac vice shall include the attorney applicant's averment that he or she has familiarized him/herself with the Local Rules of the Southern District of Texas and these Procedures applicable to all cases before Judge Atlas.

6. MOTION PRACTICE

- A. General Guidelines: The Court follows the written motion practice described in the Local Rules. In addition, the following procedures apply.
 - 1. Counsel must make serious and timely efforts to confer with opposing counsel on all motions to try to reach agreements on the relief to be requested by movant.

2. Every non-dispositive motion must contain a certificate of conference and a proposed order granting the relief sought. Failure to comply may result in the party's pleading being denied or stricken.
3. All motions except motions pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 56 must be accompanied by a separate proposed order granting or denying the relief requested.
4. Opposed motions generally will be considered by the Court after expiration of 25 days from the motion filing date. Responses by the nonmovant must be filed within 20 days of the motion. Movant may file a reply within 5 calendar days after the non-movant's response.

When circumstances dictate, the Court may consider a motion prior to expiration of the 25 day period.

The parties by agreement may extend a motion submission day, but must give the Court prompt written notice of the agreement. Parties' agreed extensions in violation of a Court-imposed deadline require Court approval.

5. Any party wishing to make a formal discovery or scheduling motion should arrange for a conference with the Court before submission of any motion papers. See "Discovery and Scheduling Disputes" below.
6. Because most motions will be ruled on without an oral hearing, brief, clear motion papers are very important. Requests for oral argument on motions are not necessary. The Case Manager will notify counsel should the Court determine that oral argument would be beneficial.
7. All pleadings or other documents filed under seal in a civil case must be identified as SEALED and by the title of the document. For example, a motion for summary judgment filed under seal must be docketed as "MOTION for Summary Judgment (SEALED)." No pleading may be filed for docketing simply as "SEALED DOCUMENT."

B. Submitted Motions – Need for Expedited Decision:

1. The Court will rule on motions as soon as possible after the submission day or a response is filed. Counsel of record and pro se parties will be furnished with copies of orders.
2. If a pending motion requires resolution on an expedited basis, please advise the Court by letter. See supra Section 6.B.I.

C. Discovery and Scheduling Disputes: Most discovery and scheduling disputes can and should be resolved by counsel without the intervention of the Court. Compromise is encouraged.

1. Counsel are responsible for conferring in good faith to resolve discovery and scheduling disputes. If counsel for the parties are unable to reach an agreement, a conference with the Court must be sought by letter. The request MUST specify the date, time and place of the parties' prior out-of-court discovery or scheduling discussion(s), the results of the discussions, and the names of all counsel participating therein. If counsel have been unable to confer because of the unavailability or unwillingness of certain counsel to do so, the statement shall recite the facts concerning attempts to confer.
2. Counsel for the party opposing the request giving rise to the conference shall submit before the conference, if feasible, a response to the requester's letter.
3. The Court will dispose of discovery disputes at the conference to the extent possible. If a written motion is necessary, the issues to be addressed and a briefing schedule will be set during the conference.
4. If relief is sought against a non-party to the litigation, the relief may be sought by motion.
5. If parties have a dispute concerning discovery of electronic data for which parties seek Court intervention, the parties shall bring in person or have available by telephone at the conference a person with detailed knowledge of the computers and electronic databases in issue. This computer and database expertise will permit reliable responses to the Court's inquiries and will assist the Court in developing an appropriate resolution of the dispute.

7. MEMORANDA OF LAW

A. Page Limits and Briefing Requirements: The Court requires concise, pertinent and well organized memoranda of law. Without leave of Court, any memorandum shall be limited to 25 pages, 13 point type-font, double-spaced, with 1" margins. Any memorandum that has more than ten (10) pages of argument must contain the following eight (8) items. A courtesy copy of the memorandum is to be delivered to Chambers. Do not fax or email pleadings to Chambers unless specifically authorized to do so by the Court. All memoranda of law must contain items 3, 4, 6, and 7 below.

1. A table of contents setting forth the page number of each section, including all headings designated in the body of the brief or memorandum.

2. A table of citations of cases, statutes, rules, textbooks and other authorities, alphabetically arranged.
3. A short statement of the nature and stage of the proceeding.

5. A short summary of the argument.
6. Succinct headings dividing the argument into separate points.
7. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.
8. Proposed orders (except on summary judgment motions).

B. Copies of Authorities and Other Material Cited:

1. Please append copies of cases and the relevant parts of authorities that are cited in a brief, memorandum or motion only if the authorities are not found in the United States Code, United States Supreme Court Reporter, Federal Reporters, Federal Rules Decisions, Federal Supplement, Southwestern Reporter Second or Third, or Vernon's Revised Statutes and Codes Annotated.
2. Copies of supporting affidavits, deposition testimony excerpts, and other discovery referred to in the briefs should be separately filed in one or more appendices of no more than 40 pages.
3. All appendices should contain a table of contents, and appendices filed conventionally (i.e., not electronically) should be tabbed at the right margin to facilitate location of the materials cited.

8. INITIAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCES AND DOCKET CONTROL ORDERS

Please refer to Local Rule 16.1 and the Court's Form Order for Conference. See Section 5 supra ("Appearances and Conferences") for general procedures for conferences. In addition:

1. Plaintiff is responsible for ensuring that a complete Joint Pretrial Order is filed timely. A form Joint Pretrial Order is attached. It should be followed, but may be adapted, within reason, to accommodate the size and nature of the case. If plaintiff fails to file the Joint Pretrial Order, then the defendant is responsible for filing defendant's portions of a Proposed Pretrial Order in the Joint Pretrial Order format.
2. Plaintiff must deliver to Court's Chambers a courtesy copy of the Joint Pretrial Order with all attachments.
3. Failure to file the Joint Pretrial Order timely will subject counsel and the client to sanctions, including dismissal for want of prosecution and/or other appropriate relief. This applies also to parties appearing pro se.

B. Other Required Documents: With the filing of the Joint Pretrial Order, each party also must file:

1. For All Trials and Evidentiary Hearings:

Each disputed item should be labelled to show which party is requesting the disputed language. Accompanying each instruction shall be all authority or related materials upon which each party relies.

10. TRIAL SETTINGS

- B. Criminal cases: The Court sets the trial date for criminal cases at pretrial conferences.
- C. Unless an attorney has actually commenced trial in court, another trial setting will not cause the Court to pass a trial setting in a case.
- D. Information on Trial Settings: The Case Manager cannot definitively ascertain when a case will be reached or where a case is on the trial docket. Any predictions given by the Case Manager are only “educated guesses” and are NOT binding on the Court.

11. EXHIBITS

- A. Civil cases: All exhibits must be pre-marked and exchanged among counsel at the time the Pretrial Order is filed, unless a later date is agreed to by counsel. Generally, in civil cases, exhibits that have not been disclosed to opposing counsel prior to trial will not be received in evidence. The offering party shall mark its name, the case number, and the exhibit number on each exhibit to be offered.

Criminal cases: The schedule for disclosure of exhibits will be set at the pretrial conference.

- B. Counsel requiring authentication of an opponent's exhibit must notify offering counsel in writing within three (3) business days after the exhibit is identified and made available for examination. Failure to do so is an admission of authenticity. This rule supersedes S.D. TEX. LOCAL RULE 44.1.
- C. Unless otherwise directed by the Court, a party in a civil case may offer in evidence any exhibits listed in the final Joint Pretrial Order unless opposing counsel files specific written objections within three (3) business days after the joint pretrial order is filed. - E. Trial Procedure as to Exhibits:
 - 1. Counsel may not pass exhibits to the jury during trial without obtaining permission in advance from the Court.
 - 2. Exhibits must be identified in front of the jury before they will be received in evidence. Admitted exhibits will go to the jury during its deliberations.

- B. The Court will conduct most, if not all, of the examination of the panel in criminal cases, although the Court makes a case-by-case determination.

15. SETTLEMENTS AND ORDERS OF DISMISSAL

A. Settlements

1. Upon settlement of any case set for conference, hearing or trial, counsel must immediately notify the Case Manager in writing, by letter, or by email (shelia_ashabranner@txs.uscourts.gov).

3. Upon settlement of a suit involving a minor plaintiff, counsel must jointly move for appointment of a guardian ad litem if there is potential conflict of interest between the parent(s) and the minor.

JOINT PRETRIAL ORDER

[See generally Judge Atlas’s Court Procedures, § 9.A.]

Appearance of Counsel

List the parties, their respective counsel, and the addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers of counsel in separate paragraphs.

Statement of the Case

Give a brief agreed statement of the case for the information of the Court and/or which the Court may read to the jury panel to see if the panel is acquainted with the facts of or parties to the case. Include names, dates and places.

Jurisdiction

Briefly set out why the Court has full and complete jurisdiction of the subject matter and the parties. If there is an unresolved jurisdictional question, state the problem.

Motions

Identify any pending motions.

Contentions of the Parties

State concisely in separate paragraphs what each party claims.

Admissions of Fact

List all facts which have been stipulated and admitted and require no proof.

Contested Issues of Fact

List all factual issues in controversy necessary to the final disposition of this case.

Agreed Applicable Propositions of Law

Delineate those legal propositions not in dispute.

Contested Issues of Law

State briefly the issues of law in dispute. A memorandum of law should be filed which addresses these issues.

Exhibits

Each counsel must attach to this Joint Pretrial Order a list (in the form shown by Attachment A or a similar form) of all exhibits to be offered and must provide copies of all such exhibits to opposing counsel. This rule applies to rebuttal exhibits except in the limited circumstances when the exhibits cannot be anticipated.

Any counsel requiring authentication of an exhibit must so notify the offering counsel in writing within five (5) calendar days after the exhibit is made available to opposing counsel for examination. Failure to do so is an admission of authenticity. See S.D. TEXAS LOCAL RULE 44.1.

Exhibits listed in the final pretrial order are admissible in evidence unless opposing counsel files written objections within five calendar days after the joint pretrial order is filed. This rule supersedes S.D. TEXAS LOCAL RULE 46.

The offering party will mark his own exhibits prior to trial and include the party's name, case number, and exhibit number on each exhibit to be offered.

Witnesses

List the names and addresses of witnesses who will or may be called and include a brief statement of the subject matter and substance of their testimony. If a witness is to appear by deposition, cite the inclusive pages and lines to be read. Objections to those portions (citing pages and lines) with supporting authority must be filed within five (5) calendar days after the joint pretrial order is filed.

Each counsel will also attach to the joint pretrial order a list of witnesses' names.

In the event there are any other witnesses to be called at the trial, their names, addresses and the subject matter of their testimony shall be reported to opposing counsel as soon as they are known. This restriction shall not apply to a purely rebuttal or impeaching witness if necessity of the witness or the testimony cannot reasonably be anticipated before trial.

Settlement

Include a statement addressing whether or not all settlement efforts have been exhausted, the current settlement demand and offer, and whether the case can reasonably be expected to settle.

Trial

Include in this paragraph the following:

- (a) Whether trial will be Jury or Non-Jury;
- (b) Probable length of trial; and
- (c) Availability of witnesses.

Additional Required Attachments

Motions in Limine: State whether any party is filing a Motion in Limine. (All Motions in Limine must be filed with the Pretrial Order.)

For Jury Trials include the following:

- (a) Proposed questions for the venire panel.
- (b) Proposed jury instructions, definitions, and interrogatories. Each requested instruction, definition, and interrogatory must be numbered and presented on a separate sheet of paper with the citation and authority upon which counsel rely.
- (c) Memorandum of Law.

For Non-Jury Trials include the following:

- (a) Proposed Findings of Fact.
- (b) Proposed Conclusions of Law.
- (c) Memorandum of Law.
