

2010 Census Coloring and Activity Book

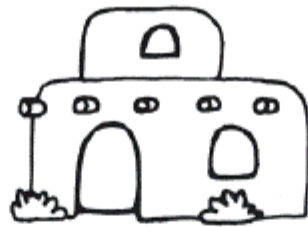

The Census Bureau counts families.

There are 300 million people in the United States.

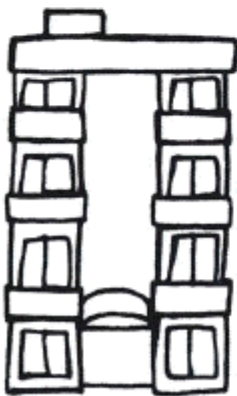

The Census Bureau counts people in the United States
Find your state and color it your favorite color. Color the rest of the map.

The Census Bureau counts people who live in all types of homes.

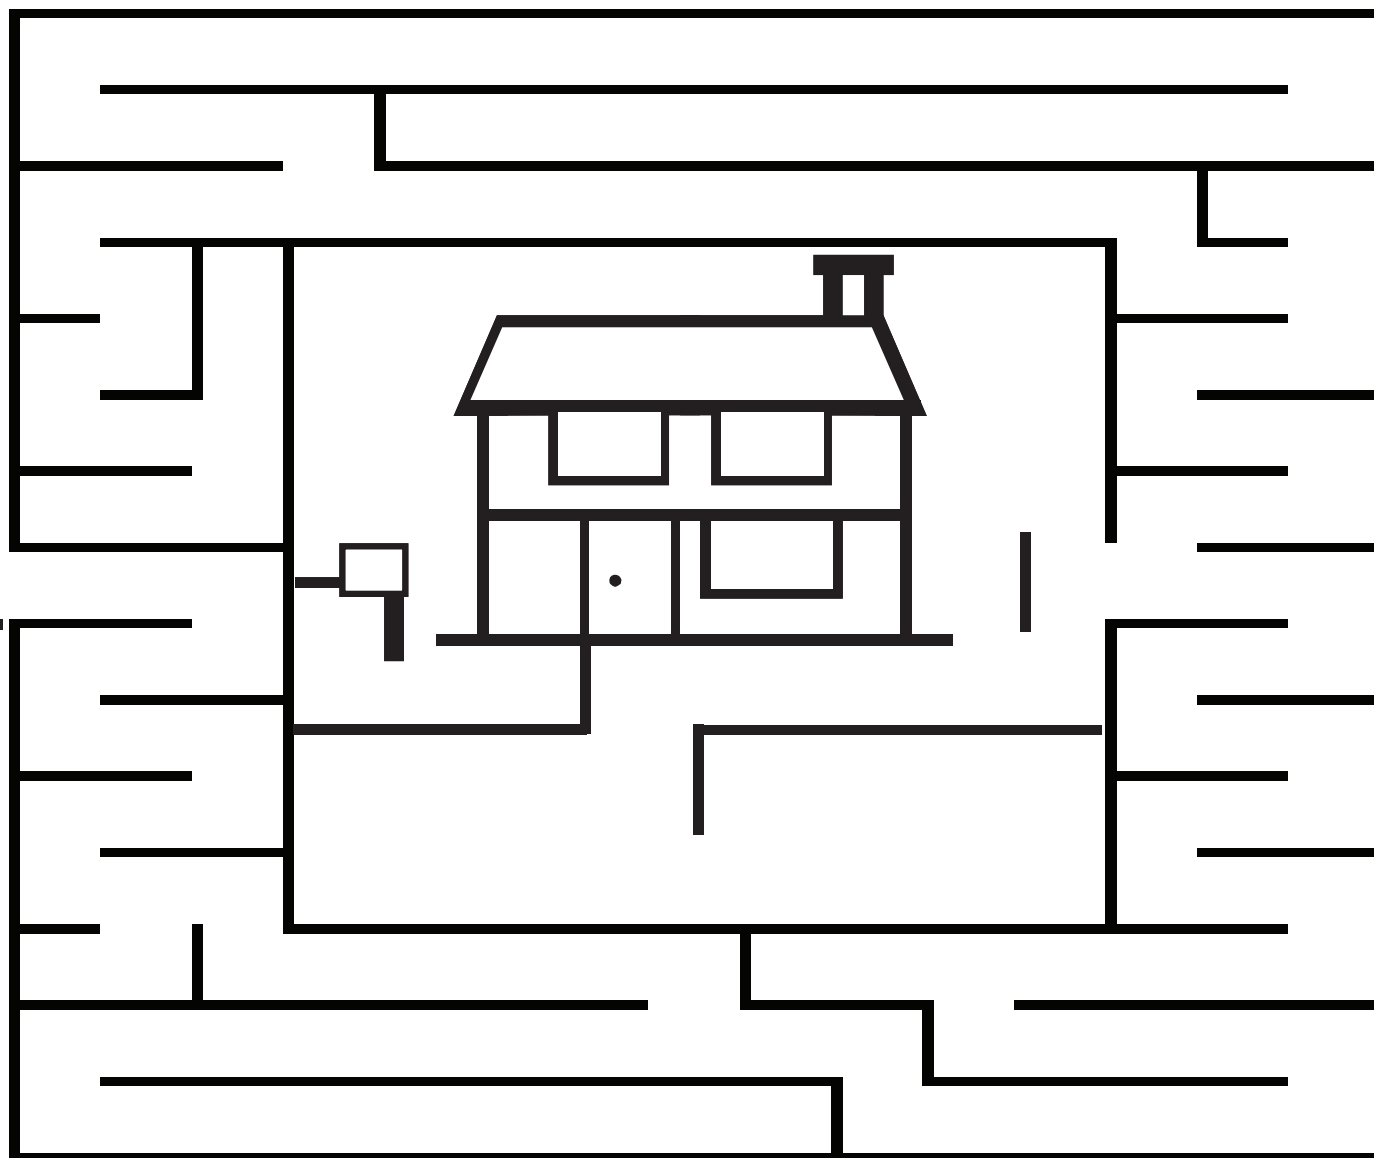

How many houses are on this page?

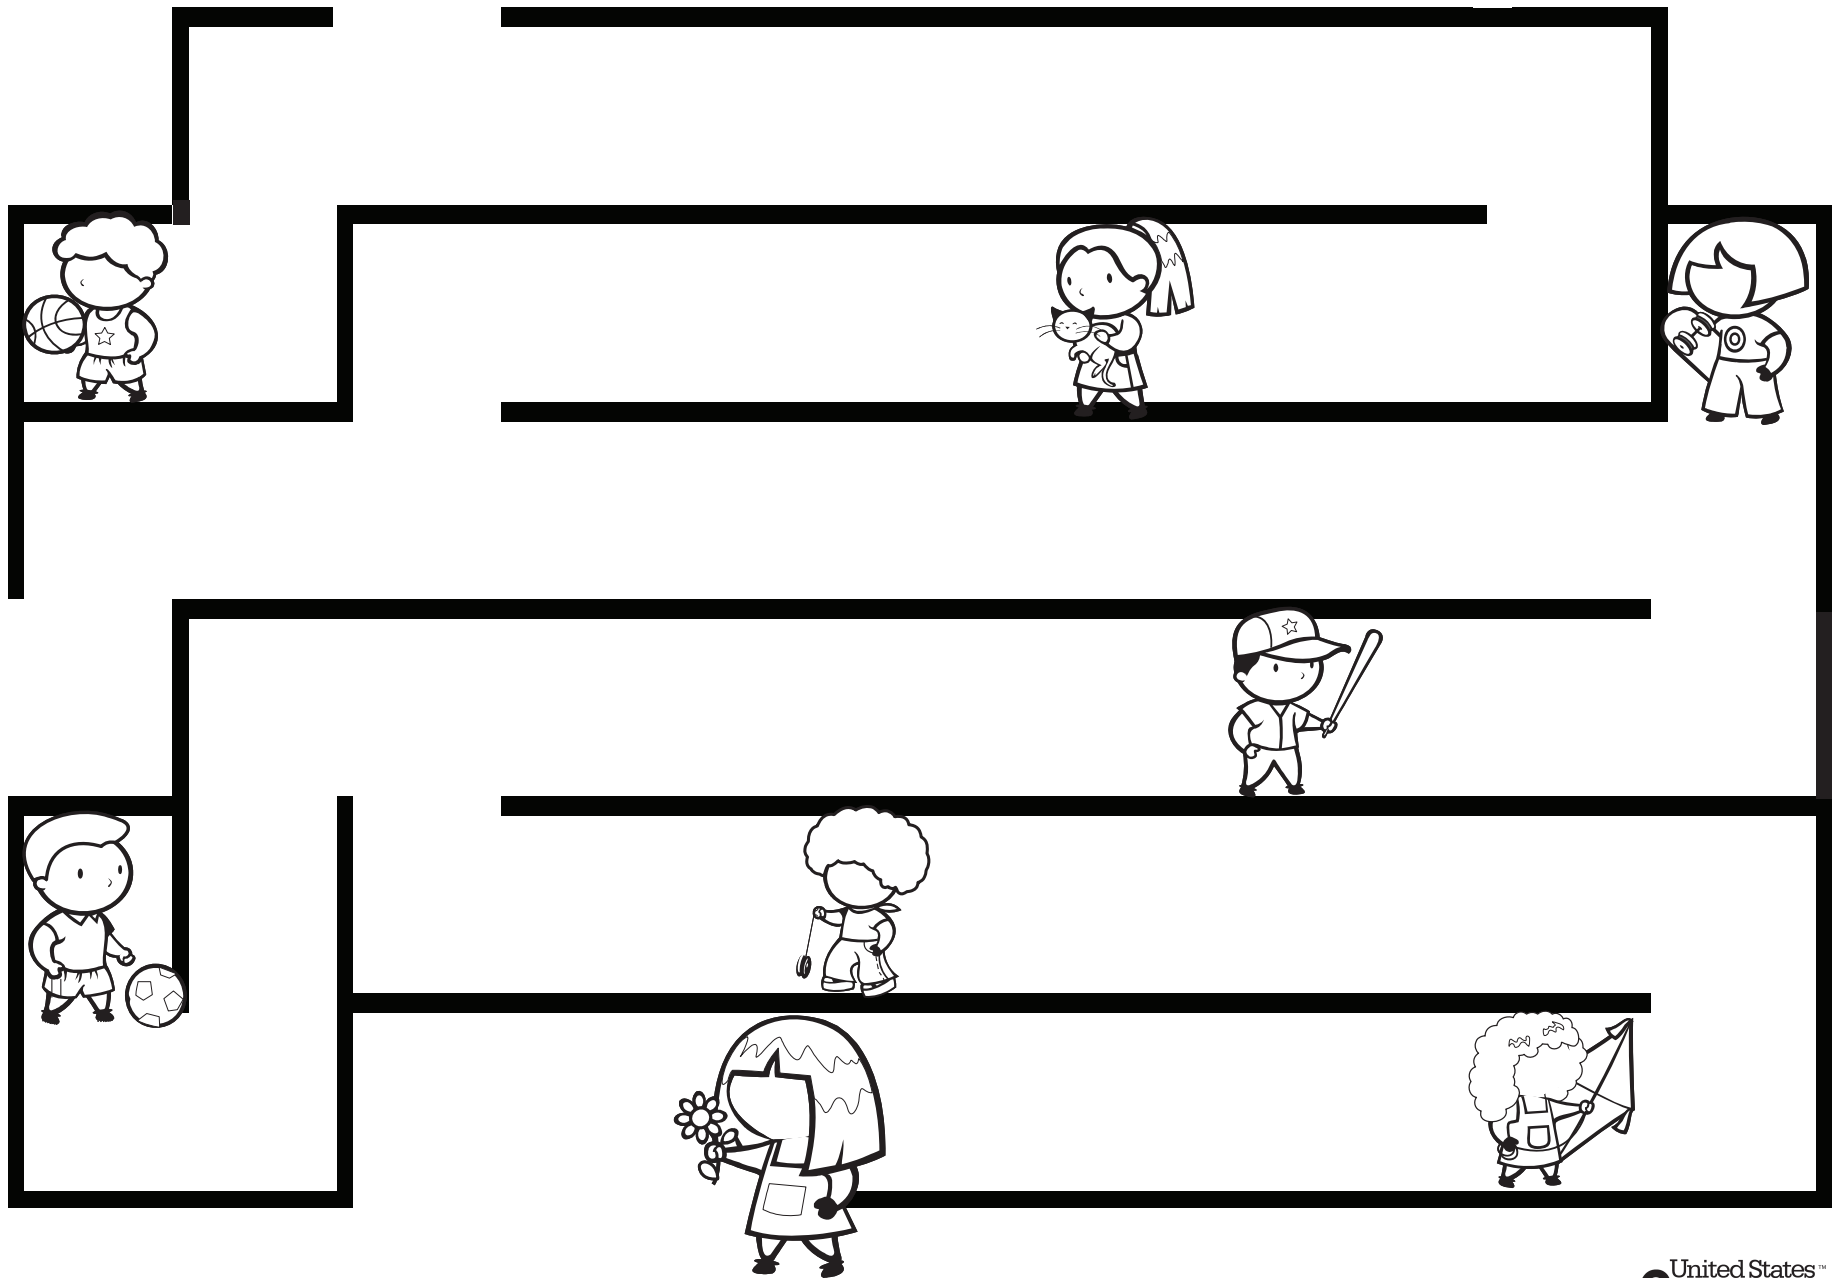

The Census Bureau counts everybody, including you! Add yourself to this picture.

Help Emily find her way home where she will be counted.

Let's go play with Emily.
Count how many friends you pass on your way to play with Emily.

The Census is easy, important, safe, and your participation is vital!
Answers are protected by law and strictly confidential.
Make sure you are counted!

For Teachers and Students - www.census.gov/schools/facts
2010 Census Information - www.census.gov/2010census/

