APPLICATION FOR DEFERRED RETIREMENT

(Separations before October 1, 1956)

INTRODUCTION

This package is for your use if you are a separated Federal employee who wants to apply for deferred annuity based on a separation from service covered by Civil Service Retirement law before October 1, 1956. This package does not include any information on the provisions of the Federal Employees Retirement System Act of 1986.

Review all information carefully before you complete the application. Special information which applies only to certain separated Members of Congress and congressional employees has not been included. Keep the information sections of this package for future reference.

ELIGIBILITY FOR DEFERRED ANNUITY

If you die before attaining age 62, or after age 62 but before applying for annuity, the only benefit payable will be your lump sum credit in the retirement fund; monthly survivor annuity will not be available.

Deferred annuity is payable commencing the day the former Federal employee is 62, provided an application has been submitted to OPM and approved. Your "retirement date" is your 62nd birthday even if you did not apply for your annuity before you were 62.

Final separation on/after January 24, 1942, but before April 1, 1948, from service covered by the Civil Service Retirement law entitles you to an annuity if:

- 1. You had at least 5 years of creditable civilian Federal service or a combination of creditable civilian Federal service and military service equaling 5 years, as of your final separation.
- 2. You have not forfeited entitlement by drawing a refund of your retirement deductions covering your final period of service.

If the Office of Personnel Management determines that your final separation during the period specified above was involuntary, not for cause, your annuity may begin at age 55.

Final separation on/after April 1, 1948, but before October 1, 1956, from service covered by the Civil Service Retirement law entitles you to an annuity if:

- 1. You had at least 5 years of creditable civilian Federal service as of the date of your final separation.
- 2. You have not forfeited entitlement by drawing a refund of your retirement deductions covering your final period of service.
- 3. In addition, if the final separation on which your entitlement is based was on/after August 31, 1954, you must have been covered by the retirement law for at least one year out of the two-year period preceding your final separation.

If your final period of service does not meet the "one out of two" requirement, it will be eliminated form consideration retirement deductions withheld during the period will be refunded, and, if possible, entitlement will be based on a previous separation.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING APPLICATION FOR DEFERRED ANNUITY

Section A - Identifying Information

- Item 1: Type or print your name clearly.
- Item 2: List other names under which you have been employed in the Federal government (such as a maiden name). This will make it possible for us to locate and identify records maintained under such names.
- Item 3: Enter the address to which correspondence should be mailed. (If you want your payments sent to a bank, do NOT enter that address here; refer to page 7 for information about how to do this.)
- Item 4: Give a telephone number where you can be reached in case more information is needed.
- Item 5: Give your date of birth, showing the month, then the day, then the year. Your retirement records are filed by your name and date of birth. If your date of birth is not correct on the letter with this package, send proof of your date of birth (such as your birth certificate) with your application.
- Item 6: Enter your social security number. The Treasury Department requires us to report, by social security number, the amount paid to each annuitant.
- Item 7: Indicate your citizenship.

Section B - Marital Information

- Item 1: Indicate whether or not you are married now. If you are married, also complete Items 1a-1f with information about your current marriage. Information about your marital status and your spouse is necessary to assure that you get the survivor election that you want and to which you are entitled by law.
- Item 1a: Enter your spouse's name.
- Item 1b: Enter your spouse's date of birth (month-day-year).
- Item 1c: Furnish your spouse's social security number.
- Item 1d: Enter the place of your marriage (town or city and state).
- Item 1e: Enter the date of your marriage (month-day-year).
- Item 1f: If you were married by a clergyman or justice of the peace, check that box. If not, check the box marked "other" and explain how, or by whom, you were married.
- Item 2: Indicate whether you have a living former spouse whose marriage to you ended by divorce or annulment on or after May 7, 1985. If you answer "yes," you must submit a copy of the court order and any attachments or amendments.

Section C: Annuity Election

To be eligible for a survivor annuity after your death, your widow(er) must have been married to you for a total of at least 9 months. The marriage duration requirement does not apply if your death is accidental (as defined under the retirement regulations) or your surviving spouse is a parent of your child.

Box 1: Spouse Survivor Benefit

If you initial either Box 1A or Box 1B, your wife or husband will receive a survivor annuity upon your death. The amount of this survivor annuity and the amount of the reduction in your annuity to provide this benefit depend on the box you initial. For a full discussion of the effect of court orders, see Important Information About Annuity Election on page 3.

Box 1A: Maximum Survivor Benefit

If you initial Box 1A, you are electing the maximum survivor benefit.

Your spouse's survivor annuity upon your death will be 55% of all of your annuity. Your annuity will be reduced by 2-1/2% of the first $3,600 and 10% of the remainder of your annual annuity to provide this benefit upon your death.

Box 1B: Less than Maximum Survivor Benefit

If you initial Box 1B, you must complete and attach OPM Form 1496, Schedule B, Spouse's Consent to Survivor Election. The law requires consent of the spouse if a married person elects less than the maximum survivor benefits. (See Important Information About Annuity Election on page 3 for exceptions to the consent requirements.)

If you initial Box 1B, your spouse's survivor annuity upon your death will be 55% of the annual amount you specify in the blank space (which must be less than the full amount of your annual annuity). Your annuity will be reduced by 2-1/2% of the first $3,600 and 10% of any additional amount you specify.

Box 2: No Survivor Benefit

If you are married and initial Box 2, you must also complete and attach to your application OPM form 1496, Schedule B, Spouse's Consent to Survivor Election. The law requires that your spouse consent if you elect less than the maximum or no survivor annuity. (See Important Information About Annuity Election on page 3 for exceptions to the consent requirement.)

If you initial Box 2, you will receive an annuity payable only during your lifetime, without monthly survivor annuity for your spouse. All applicants, married and unmarried, may choose this type of annuity. However, you should review carefully all information provided here before making your election.

Box 3: Former Spouse or Combination Current/Former Spouse Benefit

You are not eligible to elect a survivor annuity for a former spouse if the dates of your 62nd birthday and of the divorce or annulment were both before May 7, 1985.

If you initial Box 3, you must use OPM Form 1496, Schedule A, Election of Former Spouse Survivor Annuity or Combination Current/

Former Spouse Annuity, to make your election. Read the information at the bottom of Schedule A. You are not permitted to elect a benefit for a former spouse who has remarried before reaching age 55. Complete OPM Form 1496, Schedule B, Spouse's Consent to Survivor Election, if you are married and initial Box 3. (See Important Information About Annuity Election for exceptions to the consent requirements.)

If you initial Box 3, after your death, the person(s) you elect will receive the percentage of your annuity you select. Your annuity will be reduced by 2-1/2% of the first $3,600 and 10% of the remainder as you specify.

Box 4: Insurable Interest Survivor Benefit

If you were 62 before May 7, 1985, and you were married at age 62, you are not eligible to check Box 4.

If you initial box 4, a person selected by you at retirement, who has an insurable interest in you, will receive a survivor annuity upon your death. Insurable interest exists if the person named (such as a close relative) may reasonably expect to derive financial benefit from your continued life. Enter the requested information about the person selected on your application.

You must submit medical evidence that you are in good health. If you initial Box 4, we will send you a notice describing the medical evidence you must submit.

If you choose this type of annuity, the amount of the reduction in your annuity will depend upon the difference between your age and the age of the person named as survivor annuitant, as shown in the table below. The survivor's rate will be 50% of your reduced annuity.

Age of Person Named in Relation to That of Retiring Employee	Reduction in Annuity of Retiring Employee
Older, same age, or less than 5 years younger 5 but less than 10 years younger 10 but less than 15 years younger 15 but less than 20 years younger 20 but less than 25 years younger 25 but less than 30 years younger 30 or more years younger

If you were 62 on or after May 7, 1985, you may elect an insurable interest survivor annuity for another person in addition to a regular survivor annuity for a current or former spouse. However, if you elect an insurable interest for your current spouse, you must both jointly waive the current spouse annuity. If you elect the insurable interest annuity for a current spouse because a court order awards (or you have elected) the regular survivor annuity to a former spouse, the insurable interest election for your current spouse can be converted to a current spouse annuity if the former spouse loses entitlement to the regular annuity through death or remarriage prior to reaching age 55. The marriage duration requirement does not apply to insurable interest annuities.

Important Information About Annuity Election

If you are married at retirement and do not indicate your annuity election, you will receive an annuity reduced to provide the maximum survivor benefit (as though you had initialed Box 1A). If you are married at retirement and elect less than the maximum survivor benefits for your spouse (that is, you choose 1B, 2, 3, or 4, described above), the law requires that your spouse consent on OPM Form 1496, Schedule B, Spouse's Consent to Survivor Election, unless the consent requirement does not apply to you. Your application will be processed on the basis of maximum survivor benefits if this form is required but is not attached.

Notice to Applicants Whose 62nd Birthday was Before May 7, 1985

If your 62nd birthday was before May 7, 1985, you may not elect a survivor annuity for a former spouse unless your marriage terminated on or after May 7, 1985. Also, you do not need your spouse's consent to elect an annuity without survivor benefit for your spouse or an annuity with less than the full survivor benefit for your spouse.

If (1) your 62nd birthday was on or after January 5, 1981, (2) you are still married to the person to whom you were married on your 62nd birthday, and (3) you wish to elect an annuity with less than the full survivor benefit or no survivor benefit for that spouse, you must enclose with your application either--

A written declaration signed by your spouse and two witnesses to the signature (you cannot be one of the witnesses) stating that he or she is aware that you have elected an annuity without survivor benefit (or with less than full survivor benefit) for your surviving spouse; or

Your spouse's current or last-known mailing address.

Use the attached Schedule C if you need to notify your spouse that you are electing less than the maximum survivor annuity.

Notice to Married Applicants Who Married After Age 62

Your current spouse is a spouse you married after retirement. If you wish to elect him or her a survivor annuity, you may do so with this application or within two years following the date of marriage. If that two-year period has expired, this application is your last opportunity to elect a survivor benefit for your present spouse.

If you were not married to your current spouse on your 62nd birthday, you may elect an annuity with less than the full survivor benefit or with no survivor benefit (or in most cases with survivor benefit to former spouse, if that marriage terminated, or your 62nd birthday occurred, on or after May 7, 1985), without the consent of, or notice to, your current spouse or any prior spouse. If a former spouse has a court order, dated on or after May 7, 1985, which properly awards him or her a survivor annuity, OPM will honor the court order.

Waiver of Spousal Consent Requirement

The spousal consent requirement may be waived if you show that your spouse's whereabouts cannot be determined. A request for waiver on this basis must be made in writing and accompanied by:

- A judicial determination that your spouse's whereabouts cannot be determined; OR
- Affidavits by you and two other persons, at least one of whom is not related to you, attesting to the inability to locate the current spouse and stating the efforts made to locate the spouse. You must also give documentary evidence, such as tax returns filed separately or newspaper stories about the spouse's disappearance.

The spouse's consent requirement may also be waived if you present a judicial determination regarding the current spouse that would warrant waiver of the consent requirement based on exceptional circumstances. (Illness or injury of the retiree is not justification for waiving the spousal consent requirement.)

Court-Ordered Former Spouse Annuities

OPM must honor a court order/divorce decree on or after May 7, 1985, that gives (awards or requires you to provide) a survivor annuity to a former spouse. OPM cannot honor court-order modifications issued after the retirement involving a former spouse survivor annuity. Your annuity will be reduced to provide the survivor annuity for the former spouse. However, a former spouse cannot receive a survivor annuity by a court order unless:

- 1. He or she was married to you for at least 9 months;
- 2. You have at least 18 months of service subject to retirement deductions;
- 3. He or she has not remarried before reaching age 55; and
- 4. The marriage ended on or after May 7, 1985.

If you are married and a court order has awarded a survivor annuity to your former spouse, see the section Electing a Survivor Annuity for a Current Spouse When a Court Order Gives a Survivor Annuity to Former Spouse on page 4. This explains how you can protect your current spouse's future survivor annuity rights.

Electing a Survivor Annuity For a Former Spouse or a Combination of Survivor Annuities for Current and Former Spouses

If your marriage ended on or after May 7, 1985, you may elect a reduced annuity to provide a maximum (55% of your unreduced annuity) or less-than-maximum survivor annuity for a former spouse (or spouses).

- To make a former spouse annuity election, you must have been married to the person for a total of at least 9 months and you must have at least 18 months of service that was subject to retirement deductions. A former spouse who marries again before reaching age 55 is not eligible for a former spouse survivor annuity.
- 2. You may elect to provide a survivor annuity for more than one former spouse. If you are married, you may elect a survivor annuity for your current spouse as well as a survivor annuity for one or more former spouses. However, the total of the survivor annuities may not exceed 55% of your unreduced annuity.

3. To elect a reduced annuity to provide a survivor annuity for a former spouse or a combination of survivor annuities for current and former spouse(s), complete and attach OPM 1496, Schedule A, Election of Former Spouse Survivor Annuity or Combination Current/Former Spouse Annuity.

Electing a Survivor Annuity for a Current Spouse When a Court Order Gives a Survivor Annuity to a Former Spouse

- 1. If a court order has given a survivor annuity to a former spouse, you must make your election concerning a survivor annuity for your current spouse as if there were no court-ordered former spouse annuity. By electing the maximum survivor benefits for your current spouse at retirement, you can protect your spouse's rights in case your former spouse loses entitlement in the future (because of remarriage before age 55, under the terms of the court order, or death). You can do this because the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) must honor the terms of the court order and you are not required to ELECT a survivor annuity for the former spouse. (Note: The election you make now regarding a survivor annuity for your current spouse cannot be changed except as explained in the section titled "Annuity Election Changes After Retirement.") The following paragraphs explain in more detail how your election at the time of retirement can affect your current spouse's future rights if the court has given a survivor annuity to a former spouse.
- 2. If a court order gives a survivor annuity to a former spouse, your annuity will be reduced to provide it. If you elect a full or partial survivor annuity for your current spouse (or another former spouse), your annuity will be reduced no more than it would be to provide a survivor annuity equal to 55% of your unreduced annuity.
- 3. If you die before your current and former spouse, the total amount of the survivor annuities paid cannot exceed 55% of your annuity, and the CSRS must honor the terms of the court order before it can honor your election. The former spouse having the court-ordered survivor benefit would receive an annuity according to the terms of the court order.
- 4. If a court order gives the maximum survivor annuity to the former spouse, your widow(er) would receive no survivor annuity until the former spouse loses entitlement. Then your widow(er) would receive a survivor annuity according to your election.
- 5. If the court order gives less than the maximum survivor annuity to the former spouse, your widow(er) would receive an annuity no greater than the difference between the court-ordered survivor annuity and 55% of your annuity. However, if the former spouse loses entitlement to the survivor annuity (through remarriage before age 55, under the terms of the court order, or death), your widow(er)'s survivor annuity would be increased to the amount you elected.

For example, if there is a court-ordered former spouse survivor annuity that equals 40% of your annuity, you elect the maximum survivor annuity for your current spouse, and you die before the former spouse's entitlement to a survivor annuity ends, the former spouse would receive a survivor annuity equal to 40% of your annuity and your widow(er) would receive a survivor annuity equal to 15% of your annuity.

However, if the former spouse later loses entitlement to the survivor annuity (through remarriage before age 55, under the terms of the court order, or death), your widow(er) would then receive a survivor annuity equal to 55% of your annuity.

Electing an Insurable Interest Annuity For a Current Spouse

See the discussion on page 2 of these instructions for the definition of Insurable Interest.

- If a former spouse's court-ordered survivor annuity will prevent your current spouse from receiving a survivor annuity that is sufficient to meet his or her anticipated needs, you may want to elect an insurable interest annuity for your current spouse.
- 2. If you elect an insurable interest survivor annuity for your current spouse, you and your current spouse must jointly waive the regular survivor annuity. To accomplish this:
  - a. initial box 1B in Section C of the OPM Form 1496, and write "none" in the space following that bo x (i.e., election to provide no regular survivor annuity);
  - b. complete Section C, item 4 naming your current spouse (i.e., election to provide insurable interest benefit);
  - c. complete Part 1, item b of OPM Form 1496, Schedule B;
  - d. have Parts 2 and 3 of Schedule B completed (i.e., spouse's consent to insurable interest benefit in lieu of regular survivor annuity).
- 3. If you elect an insurable interest survivor annuity for your current spouse and your former spouse loses entitlement before you die, you may request that the reduction in your annuity to provide the insurable interest annuity be converted to the regular spouse survivor annuity; this would result in a larger annuity. (See Annuity Election Changes After Retirement.) Your current spouse would then be entitled to the regular survivor annuity. In addition, if your former spouse loses entitlement after you die, your widow(er) can ask OPM to substitute the regular survivor annuity for the insurable interest survivor annuity.
- 4. If for any reason OPM cannot allow your insurable interest election for your current spouse, your current spouse will be considered elected for a maximum regular survivor annuity unless your current spouse signs another form consenting to less than a maximum regular survivor annuity or OPM approves a waiver of consent.

Annuity Election Changes After Retirement

1. Subject to the consent requirement, you may name a new survivor or change your election if, not later than 30 days after the date of your first regular monthly payment, you file a new election in writing. If the person you named to receive a survivor annuity dies or your current marriage ends through death, divorce or annulment, you should write OPM immediately if you want to change your election. Your first regular monthly payment is the first annuity check payable on a recurring basis after OPM has initially adjudicated the regular rate of annuity payable under CSRS and has paid the annuity accrued since the time of retirement.

- 2. When the 30-day period following the date of your first regular monthly payment has passed, you cannot change your election except under the circumstances explained in the following paragraphs.
- 3. You may change your decision not to provide a survivor annuity for your spouse at retirement or you may increase the survivor annuity amount you elected for your spouse at retirement if you request the change in writing no later than eighteen months after the commencing date of your annuity, and if you pay a deposit representing the difference between the reduction for the new survivor election and the original survivor election, plus a charge of $245.00 per each thousand-dollar change in the designated survivor base. (Interest on the deposit must also be paid.) Such an election would cancel any joint waivers made at retirement. However, the total survivor annuity(ies) provided for former spouses (by court order or election) and the current spouse cannot exceed 55% of your annuity. You may not change your election to provide a lesser survivor benefit for your spouse, except as discussed in item 1 above.
- 4. The reduction on your annuity to provide a survivor annuity for your current spouse stops if your marriage ends because of death, divorce, or annulment. However, you may elect, within two years after the marriage ends, to continue the reduction to provide a former spouse survivor annuity for that person, subject to the restrictions in paragraph 10. If you marry someone else before you make this election, your new spouse must consent to your election.
- The reduction in your annuity to provide a survivor annuity for a former spouse ends: (1) when the former spouse dies, (2) when the former spouse remarries before reaching age 55, or (3) under the terms of the court order that required you to provide the survivor annuity for the former spouse when you retired. (Modifications of the court order issued after you retire do not affect the former spouse annuity.) However, if at retirement you had elected a survivor annuity for your current spouse (or another former spouse), the reduction will be continued to provide the survivor annuity for that person. If you have not previously made an election regarding a current spouse whom you married after retirement (or if your election regarding a current spouse at retirement was based on a waiver of spousal consent), you may, within two years after the former spouse loses the right to a survivor annuity, elect a reduced annuity to provide a survivor annuity for that current spouse. This election is subject to the restrictions given in paragraph 10.
- 6. If you were unmarried at retirement, you may elect, within two years after a post-retirement marriage, a reduced annuity to provide a maximum or less-than-maximum survivor annuity for your spouse, subject to the restrictions given in paragraph 10. Your annuity will be reduced no earlier than nine months after the date of your marriage.
- 7. If you were married at retirement, that marriage ends, and you marrry again, you may elect, within two years after the remarriage, a reduced annuity to provide a survivor annuity for your new spouse, subject to the restrictions given in paragraph 10. (However, if you remarry the same person you were married to at retirement and that person had previously consented to your election of no survivor annuity, you may not elect to provide a survivor annuity for that person when you remarry.) Your annuity will be reduced no earlier than nine months after the date of your marriage.

- 8. If, at retirement, you received (by election or court order) a reduced annuity to provide a survivor annuity for a former spouse and you elected to provide an insurable interest survivor annuity for your current spouse, you may change the insurable interest election to a regular current spouse survivor annuity within two years after your former spouse loses entitlement (because of remarriage before age 55, the terms of the court order or death), subject to restrictions a and b given in paragraph 10.
- 9. The reduction in your annuity to provide an insurable interest annuity ends if the person you named to receive the insurable interest annuity dies or when the person you named is your current spouse and you change your election as explained in paragraph 8. The reduction also ends if, after you retire, you marry the insurable interest beneficiary and elect to provide a regular survivor annuity for that person. If you marry someone other than the insurable interest beneficiary after you retire and elect to provide a regular survivor annuity for your new spouse, you may elect to cancel the insurable interest reduction.
- 10. Post-retirement survivor elections are subject to the following restrictions:
  - a. They cannot be honored to the extent that they conflict with the terms of a court order that requires you to provide a survivor annuity for a former spouse;
  - They cannot be honored if they cause combined current and former spouse survivor annuities to exceed 55% of your unreduced annuity; and
  - c. If, during any period after you retired, your annuity was not reduced to provide a current or former spouse survivor annuity, you must pay into the retirement fund an amount equal to the amount your annuity would have been reduced during that period plus 6% annual interest.
- 11. Insurable interest elections are not available after retirement.

Section D - Federal Service

The letter attached to this package includes a list of your Federal and Postal service presently included in your retirement record. If you have any additional civilian Federal or Postal service, before or after the date of final separation, list it in the spaces provided. Attach additional sheets of paper if more space is needed. Attach a copy of any available documentation you may have to verify the additional service claimed. Documentation which may be useful in verifying service includes notices of appointment, separation or salary change. The Office of Personnel Management will attempt to locate official records to verify your claim even if you cannot supply documentation. If we are unable to do so, we will let you know.

Information you give will help us to assure proper credit for all service.

Federal service is service as an employee of the United States Government. Generally, to be considered an employee of the United States Government for civil service retirement purposes, a person must be:

- a. engaged in the performance of Federal functions under the authority of an act of Congress or an Executive Order,
- b. appointed in the Civil Service by a Federal officer, and
- c. under the supervision and direction of a Federal officer.

Section E - Military Service

Military service can be added to your civilian Federal service under the circumstances outlined below:

Item 1: if you have performed active duty that terminated under honorable conditions in the armed services or other uniformed services of the United States, enter, for each period of active duty, (a) the branch of service (Army, Navy, etc.), (b) your serial number for that period of service, (c) the beginning and ending dates of active duty, (d) your last grade or rank during that period of service, and (e) your organization (company, division, etc.) at discharge. If available, attach a copy of your discharge certificate or other documentation of the active military service.

Active military service, generally rendered on a full-time basis with military pay and allowances, includes the following:

- a. Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force or Coast Guard of the United States.
- b. Cadet or Midshipman of the United States Military Academy, United States Air Force Academy, United States Coast Guard Academy, or United States Naval Academy.

Service in reserve components and/or the National Guard is not considered active Federal military service except when ordered to active duty in the service of the Unites States and during an initial training period.

Information about your active duty military service is needed so that we can compare your claim with other records and request verification of all claimed military service. This assures that you are credited with the correct amount of active military service.

Item 2: Indicate whether or not you are receiving or have applied for military retired pay.

If you are receiving military retired pay, your military service cannot be used for civil service retirement purposes, unless:

- a. Your final separation was before April 1, 1948, and military retired pay was based on disability, or under Chapter 67, Title 10 (formerly Title III, Public Law 80-810), or
- b. Your final separation was on/after April 1, 1948, and on/before September 30, 1956, and military retired pay was either on account of disability incurred in combat with an enemy of the United States or which resulted from an explosion of an instrumentality of war, or under Chapter 67, Title 10, formerly Title III, Public Law 80-810).

If you are receiving military retired pay, the conditions in a or b above do not apply to you, and you wish to combine your military and civilian service to compute your civil service annuity, you must waive your military retired pay.

In order to waive military retired pay you should send a written request, specifying the effective date of the waiver and your social security number, directly to the Military Finance Center from which you receive retired pay. Preferably this should be at least 60 days before the commencing date of your civil service annuity (your 62nd birthday). Your letter might say, "I, (full name, military serial number, and social security number), hereby waive my military retired pay for civil service retirement purposes, effective close of business (the day before annuity commences)." If you wish, add "I authorize the Office of Personnel Management to withhold from my civil service retirement service retirement annuity any amount of military pay granted beyond the effective date of this waiver due to any delay in receiving or processing this election." This authorization may hasten the processing of your waiver and your retirement application.

If you have already waived military retired pay in order to receive credit for active duty military service for civil service retirement purposes, attach a copy of your request for waiver and of any reply you have received.

Section F - Other Claims Information

Item 1: Indicate whether or not you have ever applied for retirement, refund, deposit or redeposit, or voluntary contributions, under the Civil Service Retirement System. If you have, indicate which in 1a and the applicable claim numbers in 1b. This helps to assure that all of your records are located and that proper credit is given for your service, and for any deposit, redeposit, or voluntary contribution payments you have made.

Item 2: Indicate whether or not you have ever been employed under another retirement system for Federal or District of Columbia employees. If your answer is "yes," fill in the name of that retirement system in 2a and the dates of services in 2b. This helps to assure proper consideration is given to all of your service. The service you show here cannot be used to compute your civil service annuity if the other retirement system is paying you retirement based on the service.

Item 3: If you have applied for, or received, workers' compensation from the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, U.S. Department of Labor, because of a job-related illness or injury sustained during Federal employment, check the "yes" box and furnish your claim numbers and dates of benefits in 3a and 3b.

The information requested regarding benefits from the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs is needed because the law prohibits payment of both civil service retirement annuity and compensation for total or partial disability under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act at the same time. In some cases, credit for service, particularly for periods of leave without pay, may also be affected.

Section G - Certification of Applicant

Be sure to sign (do not print) and date your application, after reviewing the warning.

FILING YOUR APPLICATION

Send your completed application, and any attachments requested in the instructions or the letter, to Office of Personnel Management, Civil Service Retirement System, Retirement Operations Center, Boyers, Pennsylvania, 16017.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER YOU FILE YOUR APPLICATION

- The Office of Personnel Management will acknowledge receipt of your application and give you an identification card. This card will give you your claim number, which will begin with the letters "CSA." This number will be very important to you as an annuitant, because you will need to refer to it any time you write or call us in connection with your annuity.
- We will search our files for all records and previous claims related to your Federal service and place these with your application in your CSA claim file.

- 3. We will determine if any additional information is needed to adjudicate your claim and obtain it. For example, we may need to obtain official records of service claimed by you but not recorded in our files, certification of your military retired pay status, etc. We can obtain most of this information from other Federal agencies; we will let you know if any additional information is needed from you. Finally, we will compute the amount of your annuity.
- 4. When we finish processing your application, we will send you a package containing:
  - a. Your annuity statement; and
  - b. A booklet containing general information about your annuity.

Checks will be mailed to you (or payments sent to your bank) by the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

WHAT TO DO IF YOUR ADDRESS CHANGES BEFORE PROCESSING IS COMPLETED

The acknowledgment we will send you will include a change of address form. If your address changes before you receive your acknowledgment, write us over your personal signature, giving your name, date of birth, social security number, and your new address. If you have received your acknowledgment, remember to refer to your claim number. In addition, you should promptly notify your old Post Office of your forwarding address.

HOW TO HAVE YOUR ANNUITY PAYMENT SENT TO A BANK OR FINANCIAL INSTITUTION

To have your annuity payments sent directly to a bank or financial organization, you must complete Standard Form 1199A, Direct Deposit Sign-Up Form. This form is available only from your bank or financial organization. To complete it you will need the Civil Service Annuity claim number we give you when we acknowledge receipt of your application.

Having your annuity payments sent directly to your bank or financial organization is both convenient and safe, and eliminates the possibility of lost or stolen checks. It also assures that payments are deposited and available for your use, even when you are away from home. Informational material continues to be sent to your correspondence address.

COST-OF-LIVING INCREASES

Cost-of-Living increases are effective on December 1 and are payable in the January annuity payment. They are determined by the percentage increase in the average Consumer Price Index for the "base quarter" of the year in which they are effective over the "base quarter" of the preceding year. The "base quarter" is July, August, and September. The first cost-of-living increase you receive will be prorated to reflect the number of months you are on the retirement rolls before the increase is effective.

AMOUNT OF ANNUITY

The Office of Personnel Management will compute your annuity. See Annuity Compensation for more information.

LENGTH OF SERVICE

Add up the years, months and days of all your periods of Federal service, including creditable military service, before your final separation from civilian service covered by the retirement act. The total years and months constitute your length of service. Any days left over, that don't make a full month, are dropped.

If redeposit is not made for service which ended before October 1, 1990, and your annuity commences on or after December 2, 1990, you will receive credit for the period of service covered by the refund in your annuity computation. However, if you do not pay the redeposit for this service, your annuity will be permanently, actuarially reduced. You will be given an opportunity to pay the redeposit.

AVERAGE PAY

Your "high-5" average pay, which is the highest average annual pay produced by your basic pay rates during any 5 consecutive years of service, each rate weighed by length of time it was in effect, is used in the computation of your annuity. In most cases, the last five years of service give the highest average pay, but any 5 consecutive years may be used. Within-grade periodic pay increases are part of basic pay, but additional pay such as overtime is not.

ANNUITY COMPUTATION

Separation between January 24, 1942, and March 31, 1948

You can estimate the amount of your annuity by first multiplying \$30.00 by your years of creditable service; then adding \$8.00 for each \$100.00 in your retirement account. For example, if you had 12 years' service and \$1,000 in your retirement account, your basic annuity would be roughly ( $$30 \times 12$ ) + \$80, or \$440 a year.

Separation on/after April 1, 1948 and before October 1, 1956

If your average pay (the average annual basic pay for the highest 5 consecutive years of your service) is less than $5,000, your basic annuity will be 1% of your average pay, plus $25.00, multiplied by your total years of service. If your average pay is $5,000 or more, your basic annuity will be 1-1/2% of your average pay, multiplied by your total years of creditable service.

In no case may basic annuity exceed 80% of average pay.

If deductions were not withheld during creditable service on/after August 1, 1920, your basic annuity will be reduced by 10% of the unpaid deposit (the amount of deductions plus interest) unless deposit is paid before adjudication is completed. (This type of service is called noncontributory service.)

Increase based on separation before October 20, 1969

Annuities based on final separation before Ocotber 20, 1969, are increased by $20.00 per month beginning on the commencing date of annuity or August 1, 1974, whichever is later.

Reduction for Survivor Annuity

This reduction explained under INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING APPLICATION, Section C, Annuity Election. Unmarried children under age 18 are usually eligible for survivor annuity after your death. This eliglibity does not depend on the type of annuity you elect and does not reduce the amount of your annuity.

ADDITIONAL ANNUITY

An employee who, in addition to the amounts withheld from salary, has made voluntary contributions to the Retirement Fund will be paid, in addition to the regular annuity, $7.00 plus $0.20 for each full year the individual is over age 55 at retirement, for each $100.00 in his or her voluntary contributions account. If an employee elects a voluntary contributions survivor annuity, the additional annuity purchased will be reduced based on the difference between the annuitant's age and the survivor's age. The survivor's additional annuity is 50% of the employee's additional reduced annuity.

PAYMENT AND ACCRUAL OF ANNUITY

All annuities are payable in monthly installments on the first business day of the month following the one for which the annuity has accrued. Monthly annuity rates are rounded down to the next lower dollar. This provision also applies to annuities that were redetermined and to cost-of-living adjustments.

Election of Former Spouse Survivor Annuity or Combination Current/Former Spouse Annuity

Information: You may elect a reduced annuity to provide a full (55% of your annuity) or partial (less than 55% of your annuity) survivor annuity for a former spouse, if you were married to that person for at least nine months and you have at least 18 months of Federal service that was subject to civil service retirement deductions. A former spouse who marries before age 55 is not eligible for a survivor annuity.

If you are married and elect to provide a partial survivor annuity for a former spouse:

- You may also elect to provide a partial survivor annuity for your current spouse and/or former spouse(s). However, the sum of all survivor annuities cannot exceed 55% of your unreduced annuity.
- Your current spouse must consent using OPM Form 1496, Schedule B, to any election that does not provide him or her with a full survivor annuity.

If you are not married, you may elect partial survivor annuities for one or more former spouses. However, the sum of all survivor annuities cannot exceed 55% of your unreduced annuity.

To elect a former spouse annuity, do not mark either box in item 1 of Section C of the OPM Form 1496. Instead, mark item 3. Then complete and attach this OPM Form 1496 Schedule A, which allows you to elect a benefit for a former spouse or to divide the benefit between your current spouse and former spouse(s).

Documents you must attach:

- 1. Copies of divorce decrees for all former spouses for whom you elect to provide a survivor annuity.
- 2. If you are married, you must also attach a completed OPM Form 1496, Schedule B, Spouse's Consent to Survivor Annuity Election.

General Information: Based on Public Law 98-615, a married applicant whose annuity begins on or after May 7, 1985, receives a fully reduced annuity to provide a maximum survivor annuity for his or her spouse, unless the retiree and the spouse consent to a less than full survivor annuity by signing this form or OPM approves a waiver of the spouse consent.

A court order which requires an applicant to provide a survivor annuity for a former spouse is not an election and spousal consent is not required. In other words, such a court order does not require a current spouse to waive the right to a survivor annuity. The applicant can still elect to provide a survivor annuity for the current spouse even though the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) must honor the terms of the court order before it can honor the election for the current spouse. The current spouse may, therefore, receive a smaller annuity than elected, or none at all, unless the former spouse loses eligibility for the court-ordered survivor annuity (through remarriage before age 55, under the terms of the court order, or death).

Important: If the current spouse consents to an election to provide no survivor annuity or partial survivor annuity and is later divorced from the retiree, the retiree may not then elect (nor can OPM honor a court order) to provide a former spouse annuity which exceeds the amount elected at retirement for that spouse.
