Prepared by:

Kathleen Waino

Report Highlights:

Canadian imports of wine have increased significantly over the past 4 years, to over 200 million liters in 1998, and the January-September period of 1999 indicate an increase over the 1998 level is likely. France is the leading supplier (32%) followed by the U.S. (nearly 19%). Red wine comprises nearly 50% of total imports. The provinces of Ontario and Quebec account for over 70 percent of total Canadian imports, followed by B.C. (about 15%) and Alberta (8%). Canadian wine exports in 1998 totaled about 1.3 million liters.
