

and much of it is due to Captain Hempson's leadership.

Captain Hempson has had a long and far reaching naval career. He is qualified in nuclear submarines and has served several sea assignments as a Supply Officer. His shore assignments have included logistics, acquisition, and financial management in many different offices and commands. Captain Hempson has also been designated a Surface Warfare Supply Corps officer. His decorations include the Legion of Merit, the Meritorious Service Medal and the Navy Commendation Medal, each with one Gold Star in lieu of second award.

Captain Hempson is an immensely qualified individual who has graduated from Georgia Institute of Technology, the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, Northwestern University's Kellogg Graduate School of Management, and the Brookings Institution. His extensive training has served the Defense Department well. Captain Hempson is married to Sandra R. Zayatz Hempson, and they have two children, Donald and Kelly.

I know my Senate colleagues join me in thanking Capt. Donald Hempson for his 27 years of dedicated service to our country.●

SALINE CELTIC FESTIVAL

● Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I rise to honor the Saline Celtic Festival which will take place on the banks of the Saline River on July 6, 1996, in Saline, MI. This festival celebrates Irish, Scottish, and Welsh cultures and will feature traditional Celtic food, music, and dance. This year's Celtic festival is especially significant because it marks the 30th anniversary of the Saline, MI—Brecon, Wales Sister City program.

On April 18, 1966, Mayor George Johnson invited the City of Brecon, Wales to become a Sister City in the People-to-People program established by President Eisenhower in 1956. The program's goal was to promote strong ties among different cultures. The Saline-Brecon union was the first to involve United States and Welsh citizens under the program.

Over the years, the relationship between the two cities has often involved the exchange of music. In 1967, Musical Youth International, during its tour of Europe, was the first official group from Saline to visit Brecon. In 1984, the mayor of Brecon asked the city of Saline to become involved in a 3-day Dixieland Jazz Festival it was planning. Saline quickly accepted the invitation and sent the Saline Big Band to Brecon, Wales. An original "Hymn for Brecon", written by Dil Murrell, was performed for their gracious hosts. The trip was a memorable experience for the group of 35 that traveled to Wales. They were treated with great hospitality and made many new friends at the festival. During the following years, Saline sent its high school choir and marching band—and in 1988, the Saline Big Band made a return visit to Brecon.

The residents of Brecon have also reached out to the City of Saline. The first guests from Brecon were Mayor and Mrs. Tony Elston in 1973. In 1986, while celebrating the 20th anniversary of the twinning of the cities, nearly 60 citizen ambassadors traveled from Brecon to Saline. This year will also see a large group from Brecon celebrating the Celtic Festival in Saline.

Thirty years have fostered a solid friendship between Saline and Brecon, they've learned about each other, and as Mayor Little has so aptly put it, they have become "one community separated by a large body of water." I know my Senate colleagues join me in Saluting the Saline Celtic Festival and the 30th anniversary of the Saline-Brecon Sister City program.●
