

From annual report of the Secretary of the Interior on the work of the Census.

1896

Work of the Eleventh Census completed except final proofreading and revision of two volumes.

Commissioner of Labor to formulate and submit plans for a permanent Census service.

Results of future censuses to be brought out more promptly.