Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

October 28, 1960

Copyright: Republican National Committee

1 reel 1150' 29 minutes sound B&W

Produced by the Volunteers for Nixon-Lodge, Eisenhower gives an address at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia, PA. He is introduced by Lt. Gen. Milton G. Baker. He begins his speech by asking the crowd to examine the achievements of his administration, such as increased personal income; increased Gross National Product; the Interstate Highway System; the St. Lawrence Seaway; increased military strength; improved National Park Service; labor reforms; increased Social Security benefits; civil rights. He then lists the qualities a candidate should possess, and endorses Richard M. Nixon, and Henry Cabot Lodge as having these qualities. He describes the duties of the President of the United States as Chief of State, Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces, head of the National Security, and guardian of free enterprise. He stresses the importance of foreign relations, and lists the accomplishments of his administration in this field, such as Korea, Viet Nam; Formosa; the Philippines; the Suez Canal; Trieste; Iran. Eisenhower emphasizes Nixon's and Lodge's experience in foreign affairs, and stresses that caution and deliberation are needed in international situations. He ends the speech by pledging his vote to Nixon and Lodge, and asking the crowd to do the same.
