

Comment Info: =====

General Comment: Please do not impose regulations that would make it impossible for small local farms to grow and sell leafy greens. Food from small, local farms is the healthiest option available; if making food safer is the goal, creating regulations that make it impossible for these entities to operate would work directly against the goal.