THE POWER OF FREE ENTERPRISE

HON. JOE SCARBOROUGH

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 5, 1998

Mr. SCARBOROUGH. Mr. Speaker, as we Americans approach the 21st century, we should all be reminded of Ronald Reagan's wise words on the power of free enterprise to improve the lives of millions. Like President Reagan, I know history's lesson has taught us that the power of the individual entrepreneur is far more powerful than the plodding might of a government bureaucracy.

As President Reagan said in 1987, the economic vitality pushing our country into the 21st Century is broad-based and irreversible. It's not coming from the top, but from the bottom. The creative talents of our citizenry, always America's greatest asset, are being put to work for our benefit as never before. We have every reason to be optimistic.

When I first came to Washington three years ago, the annual deficit was over $200 billion a year. Bill Clinton said balancing the budget would wreck the economy. But by following the wisdom of Ronald Reagan, we cut government spending a record $50 billion in one year.

Our conservative fiscal policy has caused interest rates to drop, the markets to explode and the deficit to disappear. With the deficit monster in check, we must now reform the Income Tax code to make it fairer, simpler and less expensive for all Americans. Again, we would be wise to take President Reagan's word to heart: "Common sense told us that when you put a big tax on something, the people will produce less of it. So, we cut the people's tax rates, and the people produced more than ever before."

As President Reagan said in his Farewell Address to the Nation, lower tax rates lead to more jobs, more opportunities and a stronger economy for all Americans. Let us hope that members of Congress and this Administration will fight for the tax reform that Americans so badly need. If we meet that challenge, truly I believe America's greatest days will lie ahead.

TRIBUTE TO GLORIA BROWN

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 5, 1998

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Gloria Brown, a dedicated community leader who is being honored as an inductee into the San Mateo County Women's Hall of Fame.

Gloria Brown currently serves on the Mills-Peninsula Health Services Board of Directors, one of many boards on which she has served over the years. In 1995, Ms. Brown organized the first Awareness Sunday Program for African American women in San Mateo County in response to data indicating that African American women have one of the lowest survival rates of breast cancer in the United States. In 1996, she organized an African American Community Health Advisory Committee through the Mills-Peninsula Health Services in order to identify and address health issues that effect the African American community. Further, Ms. Brown helped design an environmental education program for middle school students to handle the academic, emotional, and social needs of pupils needing an alternative learning environment. This successful program is now in its fifth year and is conducted in partnership with the Cabrillo School District and a local funder.
