

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE
COST ESTIMATE

July 19, 2004

S. 2173
Sand Creek Massacre National Historic Site Trust Act of 2004

As ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Energy and National Resources on July 14, 2004

S. 2173 would authorize the Secretary of the Interior to take certain property into trust for the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes of Oklahoma and to construct facilities (including structures, utilities, roads, or signs) on such land. Any facility constructed with federal funds would be owned by the federal government and not taken into trust for the tribes. Based on information obtained from the National Park Service, CBO does not expect the Secretary to construct facilities on the tribes' land over the 2005-2009 period. Therefore, CBO estimates that implementing S. 2173 would have no significant effect on the federal budget.

S. 2173 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not significantly affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Lanette J. Walker. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
