

Pericles Prince of Tyre.

Lord. That's the least feare,
For by the semblance of their white flags dispaired, they bring vs
Peace, and come to vs as fauourours, not as foes.

Cleon. Thou speake'st like hymnes vtuter'd to repeat
Who makes the fairest shew, meanes most deceit,
But bring they what they will, and what they can,
What need we feare, the ground's the lowest,
And we are halfe way there: Goe tell their Generall wee attend him heere to know for what he comes, and whence he comes, & what he craues.

Lord. I goe my Lord.

Cleon. Welcome is peace, if he on peace consist;
If warres we are vnable to resist.

Enter Pericles with attendants.

Per. Lord Governor, for so we heare you are,
Let not our ships and number of our men,
Be like a Beacon fired, to amaze your eyes,
We haue heard your miseries as farre as Tyre,
And seene the desolation of your streets,
Nor come we to adde sorrow to your teares,
But to release them of their heauy load,
And these our ships you happily may thinke,
Are like the Troian horse, was stult within
With bloody veines expecting ouerthrow,
Are stor'd with corne, to make your needy bread,
And giue them life, whom hunger staru'd halfe dead.

Omnes. The Gods of Greece protect you,
And wee'l pray for you.

Per. Arise I pray you, arise; wee doe not looke for reuerence, but for loue and barborage for our selfe, our ships, and men.

Cleon. The which when any shall not gratifie,
Or pay you with vthankfulnesse in thought,
Be it our wiues, our children, or our selues,
The curse of heauen and men succeed their euils:
Till when, the which (I hope) shall nere be scene:
Your Grace is welcome to our Towne and vs.

Per.

Pericles Prince of Tyre.

Per. Which welcome wee'l accept, feast here a while,
Vntill our Stars that frowne, lend vs a smile.

Exeunt

Enter Gowor.

Gowor. Here haue you seene a mighty King,
His child I wis to inceste bring:
A better Prince and benigne Lord,
That will proue awfull both in deed and word.
Be quiet then, as men should be,
Till he hath past necessity:
He shew you those in troubles raigae,
Losing a myte, a Mountaine gaine:
The good in conuersation,
To whom I giue my benizon,
Is still at Tharsus, where each man
Thinks all is writ he spoken can:
And to remember what he does,
Build his Statue to make him glorious
But tydings to the contrary,
Are brought to your eyes, what need speake I

Good Helican that staid at home,
Not to eate hony like a Drone,
From others labours; for though he striue
To killen bad keepe good aliue:
And to fulfill his princes desire,
Sau'd one of all that haps in Tyre:
How Thaliard came full bent with sinne,
And had intent to murder him;
And this in Tharsis was no best,
Longer for him to make his rest:
