5 any other violation of Federal law” after 6 “commission of a Federal offense”; and 7 (F) in subsection (g)(2), by inserting after 8 “law enforcement officer” the following: “,

9 Member of Congress, authorized official of a 10 Federal agency, or Inspector General”.

11 (2) TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.—Section 1512
12 of title 18, United States Code, is amended—

13 (A) in subsection (b)(3)—

14 (i) by inserting a comma after “of 15 probation”; and

16 (ii) by striking the second comma
17 after “supervised release”; and

18 (B) in subsection (d)(2)—

19 (i) by inserting a comma after “of 20 probation”; and

21 (ii) by striking the second comma
22 after “supervised release”.

23 (b) RETALIATING AGAINST A WITNESS, VICTIM, OR 24 AN INFORMANT.—

1           (1) IN GENERAL.—Section 1513 of title 18, 2 United States Code, is amended—

3           (A) by inserting “, Member of Congress, 4 authorized official of a Federal agency, or In-5 spector General” after “law enforcement offi-6 cer” each place that term appears;

7           (B) by inserting “or any other violation of 8 Federal law” after “commission of a Federal 9 offense” each place that term appears; and 10          (C) in the first subsection designated as 11 subsection (e), by striking “the commission or 12 possible commission of any Federal offense” 13 and inserting the following: “the commission or 14 possible commission of any Federal offense or 15 any other violation of Federal law”.

16          (2) TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.—Section 1513
17 of title 18, United States Code, is amended—

18           (A) in subsection (a)(1)(B)—

19           (i) by inserting a comma after “of 20 probation”; and

21           (ii) by striking the second comma
22 after “supervised release”;

23           (B) in subsection (b)(2)—

24           (i) by inserting a comma after “of 25 probation”; and

1                   (ii) by striking the second comma
2                   after “supervised release”; and

3                   (C) by redesignating the second subsection 4                   designated as subsection (e) as subsection (f).

5           (e) WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION.—Section 2302
6 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by adding at 7 the end the following:

8           “(f)(1) An individual who is a victim of a prohibited 9 personnel practice may bring a civil action against a cov-10 ered entity in an appropriate district court of the United 11 States and may recover damages.

12           “(2)(A) An individual prevailing in any action under 13 this subsection shall be entitled to equitable relief, rein-
14 statement, compensation for special damages, litigation 15 costs, expert witness fees, and reasonable attorney fees.

16           “(B) In the event that reinstatement of an individual 17 prevailing in an action under this subsection is not prac-18 ticable, the individual may be awarded damages for a de-
19 nial of opportunity to continue accruing Federal pension 20 benefits.

21           “(3) A civil action under this subsection shall be com-22 menced not later than 2 years after the date on which 23 the violation occurs.

1       “(4) Any prospective waiver of the right of any indi-2       vidual to file a civil action under this subsection shall be 3       void and unenforceable.

4       “(5) An action filed under this subsection shall be 5       governed by the legal burdens of proof set forth in section 6       42121(b) of title 49, United States Code.

7       “(6) An individual may elect to have a claim under 8       this subsection adjudicated utilizing the procedures under 9       section 1514A(b) of title 18, United States Code.

10       “(7)(A) If the Government asserts that information 11       sought by an individual in an action under this subsection 12       is privileged because such information is a state secret or 13       could lead to the revelation of state secrets, such indi-14       vidual may demand that the Government provide to the 15       court, in classified form if necessary, a description of the 16       information purported to be privileged.

17       “(B) The court may make arrangements for evidence 18       pertaining to classified information or state secrets to be 19       heard in closed session, with opposing counsel present.

20       “(C) A claim of state secrets privilege under subpara-21       graph (A) shall be upheld only if the court determines that 22       disclosure of the information to the court in closed session 23       or to the public would result in substantial likelihood of 24       the unauthorized disclosure of a bona fide state secret.

1       “(D)(i) The Government shall not deny access to an 2 individual bringing action under this subsection to any in-3 formation that the individual previously actually lawfully 4 accessed.

5       “(ii) The Government shall provide an individual de-6 scribed in clause (i) with reasonable time to review such 7 information at a secure facility geographically proximate 8 to the court.

9       “(E) The Government shall not make a frivolous as-10 ssertion that information is covered by the state secrets 11 privilege under subparagraph (A).

12       “(8) In this subsection, the term ‘covered entity’ 13 means the employer of the person who engages in a pro-14 hibited personnel practice, if the act is performed within 15 the scope of employment of such person.”.

16 SEC. 3. ENHANCING INDEPENDENCE OF INSPECTORS GEN-
17 ERAL.

18       (a) REMOVAL FOR CAUSE.—The Inspector General
19 Act of 1978 (5 U.S.C. App.) is amended—

20               (1) in section 3(b) by—

21                       (A) inserting “(1)” after “(b)”; and

22                       (B) adding at the end the following:

23       “(2) An Inspector General may be removed from of-
24 fice prior to the expiration of the term of that Inspector
25 General only on 1 of the following grounds:

1           “(A) Permanent incapacity.

2           “(B) Inefficiency.

3           “(C) Neglect of duty.

4           “(D) Malfeasance.

5           “(E) Conviction of a felony or conduct involving 6 moral turpitude.”; and

7           (2) in section 8G(e) by—

8                 (A) inserting “(1)” after “(e)”; and

9                 (B) adding at the end the following:

10          “(2) An Inspector General may be removed from of-
11 fice prior to the expiration of the term of that Inspector
12 General only on 1 of the following grounds:

13                 “(A) Permanent incapacity.

14                 “(B) Inefficiency.

15                 “(C) Neglect of duty.

16                 “(D) Malfeasance.

17                 “(E) Conviction of a felony or conduct involving 18 moral turpitude.”.

19          (b) ESTABLISHMENT OF TERMS OF OFFICE.—The 20 Inspector General Act of 1978 (5 U.S.C. App.) is amend-21 ed—

22                 (1) in section 3, by adding at the end the fol-
23 lowing:

24                 “(e)(1) The term of office of each Inspector General 25 shall be 7 years. An individual may serve for more than

1 1 term in such office. Any individual appointed and con-
2 firmed to fill a vacancy in such position, occurring before 3 the expiration of the term for which the predecessor of 4 that individual was appointed, shall be appointed and con-5 firmed for a full 7-year term.

6 “(2) An individual may continue to serve as an In-7 spector General beyond the expiration of the term for 8 which the individual is appointed until a successor is ap-9 pointed and confirmed, except that such individual may 10 not continue to serve for more than 1 year after the date 11 on which the term would otherwise expire under para-12 graph (1).”; and 13 (2) in section 8G(c) by—

14 (A) inserting “(1)” after “(c)”; and 15 (B) by adding at the end the following:

16 “(2) The term of office of each Inspector General
17 shall be 7 years. An individual may serve for more than 18 1 term in such office. Any individual appointed to fill a 19 vacancy in such position, occurring before the expiration 20 of the term for which the predecessor of that individual 21 was appointed, shall be appointed for a full 7-year term.”.

22 (c) APPLICATION.—The amendments made by this 23 section shall apply to any Inspector General appointed be-24 fore, on, or after the date of the enactment of this Act.
25 The term of office of an Inspector General serving on such

1 date of enactment is deemed to begin on such date of en-2 actment.

3 SEC. 4. DIRECT SUBMISSION OF BUDGET REQUESTS TO 4 CONGRESS.

5 Section 6 of the Inspector General Act of 1978 (5 6 U.S.C. App.) is amended by adding at the end the fol-
7 lowing:

8 “(e)(1) For each fiscal year, an Inspector General 9 may transmit an appropriation estimate and request to 10 the Director of the Office of Management and Budget and 11 to the appropriate committees or subcommittees of Con-12 gress, in addition to any appropriation estimate and re-13 quest submitted to the head of the establishment con-14 cerned.

15 “(2) The President shall include in each budget of 16 the United States Government submitted to the Con-17 gress—

18 “(A) a separate statement of the amount of ap-19 propriations requested by each Inspector General 20 who has submitted an appropriation estimate under 21 paragraph (1); and

22 “(B) a statement comparing each such appro-23 priation estimate and request submitted by an In-24 spector General and the funds requested by the head 25 of the establishment concerned.”.

1 SEC. 5. PROHIBITION OF REPROGRAMMING.

2 (a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provi-3 sion of law, no funds appropriated for activities under the 4 supervision of an Inspector General shall be repro-5 grammed, transferred, or otherwise expended for any 6 other purpose without the written consent of that Inspec-7 tor General, transmitted in advance to the Committee on 8 Appropriations of the Senate and the Committee on Ap-9 propriations of the House of Representatives.

10 (b) CONDITIONS PRESERVED.—Nothing in this sec-
11 tion shall be construed as to waive any condition on re-12 programming of appropriated sums.

13 (c) SPECIFIC REPEAL.—The provisions of this sec-
14 tion shall not be superseded, except by a provision of law 15 enacted after the date of the enactment of this Act which 16 specifically repeals, modifies, or supersedes the provisions 17 of this section.

18 SEC. 6. CREATING REPORTING CHANNELS FOR WHISTLE-
19 BLOWERS.

20 Section 4(a) of the Inspector General Act of 1978
21 (5 U.S.C. App.) is amended—

22 (1) in paragraph (4), by striking “and” after 23 the semicolon at the end;

24 (2) in paragraph (5), by striking the period and 25 inserting a semicolon; and

26 (3) by adding at the end the following:

1           “(6) to create and maintain a means of employ-
2           ees confidentially reporting alleged violations of rule, 3           law, or regulation within the establishment that the 4           Inspector General oversees in the form of a hotline 5           which shall compile all allegations and refer them to 6           appropriate offices for investigation; and 7           “(7) to compile for annual report to Congress, 8           a statistical summary of all allegations, the viola-9           tions they allege, their deviation from past trends, 10          and the outcome of the preliminary inquiry or inves-

11          tigation into each allegation.”.

12 SEC. 7. SPECIAL RULE FOR REVOCATION OF SECURITY
13 CLEARANCE.

14          (a) CAUSE OF ACTION.—If any action is taken or 15          failed to be taken regarding the security clearance of an 16          individual in retaliation for any action protected under 17          paragraph (8) or (9) of section 2302(b) of title 5, United 18          States Code, the individual may bring an action against 19          the United States in any district court of the United 20          States for damages.

21          (b) CLASSIFIED FORM.—Any court hearings under 22          this section may be conducted in classified form, if nec-23          essary.

24          (c) INTENT.—This section shall not be construed to 25          diminish or enhance the authority of any court or other

1 administrative body to order any action with respect to 2 the security clearance of an individual bringing an action
3 under this section.

4 SEC. 8. CREATION OF WHISTLEBLOWER AFFAIRS DIREC-
5 TORATES WITHIN OFFICES OF THE INSPEC-
6 TORS GENERAL.

7 Section 7 of the Inspector General Act of 1978 is 8 amended by adding at the end the following:

9 “(d)(1)(A) An Inspector General may create a whis-
10 tleblower affairs directorate to act upon complaints filed 11 under subsection (a).

12 “(B) Except as provided in paragraph (2), a direc-13 torate established under this subsection shall—

14 “(i) adopt paragraphs (8) and (9) of section 15 2302(b) of title 5, United States Code, as the source 16 of investigative standards for reviewing complaints 17 described in subparagraph (A); or 18 “(ii) adopt a set of investigative standards.

19 “(2) An Inspector General whose jurisdiction includes 20 national security personnel shall not be precluded from 21 creating a whistleblower affairs directorate under this sub-22 section to receive complaints filed pursuant to subsection 23 (a), if the Inspector General adopts regulations by which 24 security clearances and personnel actions may be inves-
25 tigated as pretexts to reprisal without disturbing personnel

1 decisions based on those security clearances or personnel 2 actions.

3 “(3) The head of an agency in which a directorate 4 has been established under paragraphs (1) and (2), shall 5 establish regulations administered by the personnel and 6 readiness office of the agency, which provide for remedies
7 recommended in substantiated findings of complaints filed
8 under this section.”.

9 SEC. 9. PROHIBITED PERSONNEL PRACTICES.

10 Section 2302 of title 5, United States Code, is 11 amended—

12 (1) in subsection (a)(2)—

13 (A) in subparagraph (A)—

14 (i) by redesignating clauses (x) and 15 (xi) as clauses (xi) and (xii), respectively;

16 (ii) by inserting after clause (ix) the 17 following:

18 “(x) an investigation of an em-19 ployee;”; and

20 (iii) in the flush matter at the end, by 21 striking “ subsection (b)(8)” and inserting 22 “paragraph (8) or (9) of subsection (b)”;

23 (B) in subparagraph (B)(ii) by striking “; 24 and” and inserting the following: “, in which

1 case the President shall submit a report to Con-
2 gress, that may be classified if necessary—

3 “(I) detailing any position the 4 President has excluded from the cov-5 erage of this section; and

6 “(II) including the reasons why
7 the President determined that exclud-
8 ing a position from the coverage of 9 this section is necessary and war-
10 ranted by the conditions of good ad-11 ministration;”;

12 (C) in subparagraph (C)—

13 (i) in clause (i), by striking “ sub-14 section (b)(8)” and inserting “paragraph 15 (8) or (9) of subsection (b)”; 16 (ii) in clause (ii), by striking “the 17 Federal Bureau of Investigation,”; and 18 (iii) in clause (iii), by striking the pe-19 riod and inserting “; and”; and 20 (D) by adding at the end the following:

21 “(D) ‘intelligence agency’ means any agen-22 cy described in subparagraph (C)(ii).”;

23 (2) in subsection (b), by striking paragraphs 24 (8) and (9) and inserting the following:

1           “(8) take or fail to take, or threaten to take or 2 fail to take, a personnel action with respect to any 3 employee or applicant for employment because of—

4                   “(A) any disclosure or planned disclosure 5 of information by an employee or applicant—

6                           “(i) that the employee or applicant 7 reasonably believes evidences—

8                                   “(I) a violation of any law, rule, 9 or regulation;

10                                   “(II) gross mismanagement, a 11 gross waste of funds, an abuse of au-12 thority, or a substantial and specific 13 danger to public health or safety; or

14                                   “(III) a substantial and specific 15 threat to national security or home-16 land security; and 17                           “(ii) for which—

18                                   “(I) the disclosure is not specifi-19 cally prohibited by law; and 20                                   “(II) the information is not spe-

21 cifically required by Executive order
22 to be kept secret in the interest of na-23 tional defense or the conduct of for-24 eign affairs;

1           “(B) any disclosure or planned disclosure 2 to the Special Counsel, the Inspector General of 3 an agency, or another employee designated by 4 the head of the agency to receive such disclo-5 sures, of information which the employee or ap-6 plicant reasonably believes evidences—

7                   “(i) a violation of any law, rule, or 8 regulation;

9                   “(ii) gross mismanagement, a gross 10 waste of funds, an abuse of authority, or 11 a substantial and specific danger to public 12 health or safety; or

13                   “(iii) a substantial and specific threat 14 to national security or homeland security; 15 or

16           “(C) any failure to report a disclosure 17 made under this paragraph;

18           “(9) take or fail to take, or threaten to take or 19 fail to take, any personnel action against any em-20 ployee or applicant for employment because of—

21                   “(A) the exercise or planned exercise of 22 any appeal, complaint, or grievance right grant-23 ed by any law, rule, or regulation;

24                   “(B) testifying for or otherwise lawfully as-25 sisting, or planning to testify, or lawfully assist,

1 any individual in the exercise of any right re-
2 ferred to in subparagraph (A);

3 “(C) cooperating with or disclosing infor-
4 mation to, or planning to cooperate with or dis-5 close information to, the Inspector General of 6 an agency, or the Special Counsel, in accord-7 ance with applicable provisions of law;

8 “(D) a refusal to obey, or planning to 9 refuse to obey, an order that would require the 10 individual to violate a law; or

11 “(E) a failure to report an action under 12 this paragraph;” and

13 (3) by adding at the end the following:

14 “(g)(1)(A) For the purposes of paragraphs (8) and 15 (9) of subsection (b), positions at Federal contractors that 16 are funded in whole or in part by appropriated funds shall 17 be considered to be covered positions under subsection 18 (a)(2)(B).

19 “(B) For purposes of this paragraph—

20 “(i) the term ‘Federal contractor’ means any 21 person that has entered into a contract with the 22 Federal Government, or any person who has entered 23 into a contract with such a person pursuant to the 24 contract with the Federal Government; and

1           “(ii) a position at a Federal contractor is fund-2           ed in whole or in part by appropriated funds if the 3           responsibilities of the position include engaging in 4           any activity with respect to such contract, including 5           providing services or manufacturing goods procured 6           under the contract, or providing incidental or sup-7           port services related to such a contract, including ac-8           counting, human resources, secretarial services, and 9           any other incidental or support services.

10          “(2) For the purposes of paragraph (8)(A) and para-11          graph (9) of subsection (b), positions at agencies described 12          in subsection (a)(2)(C)(ii) shall be considered to be cov-13          ered positions under subsection (a)(2)(B).

14          “(h) Any person that violates this section shall be 15          subject to a civil penalty of not to exceed $50,000.”.

16          SEC. 10. PETITION FOR SPECIAL PROSECUTORS.

17          (a) IN GENERAL.—An individual may petition the At-18          torney General for the appointment of a special prosecutor 19          to handle a case in which the individual alleges being a 20          victim of a prohibited personnel practice, as that term is 21          defined in section 2302 of title 5, United States Code.

22          (b) APPOINTMENT.—Not later than 30 days after the 23          date of the submission of a petition described in subsection 24          (a), the Attorney General shall appoint a special pros-25          ecutor, who shall have independent jurisdiction, in any

1 case where there is a conflict of interest or where there 2 is a substantial likelihood of political interference.

3 (c) REPORTING.—In any case in which the Attorney 4 General receives a petition described in subsection (a), but 5 does not appoint a special prosecutor, the Attorney Gen-6 eral shall submit a report to Congress detailing the rea-7 sons for refusing to appoint a special prosecutor, including 8 a specific response to any argument in the petition.

9 SEC. 11. STUDY OF LISTS OF WHISTLEBLOWER RETALIA-
10 TION AND SUPPRESSIONS.

11 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Comptroller General shall de-12 velop rubrics, methods, and instruments to determine the 13 costs of retaliation against or suppression of whistle-14 blowers, including the costs associated with—

15 (1) revocation and suspension of security clear-16 ances;

17 (2) litigation;

18 (3) judgments against the United States and 19 indemnification of contractor liability;

20 (4) diversions of resources to nonproductive
21 tasks to perpetrate retaliation and suppress disclo-22 sure of fraud, waste, or abuse;

23 (5) administrative leave; and

1           (6) any other factors the Comptroller General 2 determines are the result of retaliation against or 3 suppression of whistleblowers.

4           (b) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—The Comptroller Gen-5 eral shall submit to Congress a report, not less than once 6 every 3 years, beginning with the fiscal year in which this 7 Act is enacted, estimating the costs of retaliation against 8 and suppression of whistleblowers.
