

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE
COST ESTIMATE

October 12, 2001

H.R. 2336

A bill to make permanent the authority to redact financial disclosure statements of judicial employees and judicial officers

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on October 3, 2001

H.R. 2336 would repeal the sunset provision in the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 relating to the authority of certain judicial employees and judicial officers to revise their financial disclosure statements. CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 2336 would have no significant impact on the federal budget. The bill would not affect direct spending or receipts; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply. H.R. 2336 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Lanette J. Walker. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
