- c. Because of the sensitive nature of information contained in personnel files, every effort must be made to restrict their use to those employees with an official need for access to the files.

3 FAH-1 H-2352.5 Disposition of Inactive Folders

3 FAH-1 H-2352.5-1 Official Personnel Folders (Administrative)

(CT:POH-126; 03-23-2007)

3 FAH-1 H-2352.5-2 Performance Folders

(CT:POH-126; 03-23-2007)

(State Only)

(Applies to Foreign Service and Civil Service Employees)

- a. Civil Service employee performance folder (EPF): When a Civil Service employee (other than a member of the Senior Executive Service (SES)) transfers to another agency or separates from the Service, any rating of record which is four years old or less and the performance plan upon which the rating was based are placed in the official personnel folder (OPF) and forwarded to the gaining agency or NPRC, as appropriate.
- b. Senior Executive Service (SES) EPF: The records of SES appointees (other than Presidential appointees) shall be maintained for five consecutive years from the date the appraisal is issued beginning with the effective date of the appointment. When a member of the SES moves to another agency or separates from the Service, any rating of record which is five years old or less and the performance plan upon which it is based, and all other related documents will be removed from the EPF, placed in the OPF, and transferred to the gaining agency or National Personnel Records Center (NPRC), as appropriate. Performance records of SES Presidential appointees shall be retained and disposed as required by the Guide to Personnel Recordkeeping.
- c. Foreign Service performance folder: The performance folders of Foreign Service employees who separated prior to 1975 were retired to NPRC with the related administrative OPFs. Performance folders for employees separating in 1975 and subsequent years have been transferred to Washington National Records Center (WNRC) to be retained until 15 years after separation of the employee and then disposed under an approved records control schedule. As earlier OPFs in NPRC are found to be eligible for disposal, they likewise will be destroyed.

3 FAH-1 H-2352.5-3 Reference Service on Retired Folders

(CT:POH-126; 03-23-2007)

(State Only)

(Applies to Foreign Service and Civil Service Employees)

All requests for the return of inactive official personnel folders (OPFs) from either the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) or Washington National Records Center (WNRC) must be submitted to HR/EX/RIM who will take the necessary steps to retrieve the desired folders and control their handling and use while in the Department. In the case of reemployment of a former employee, the prior service records will be merged with the new OPF. All other inactive folders will be returned to NPRC or WNRC when no longer needed for reference purposes.

3 FAH-1 H-2352.6 Records Control System

3 FAH-1 H- 2352.6-1 Purpose

(CT:POH-126; 03-23-2007)

(State Only)

(Applies to Foreign Service and Civil Service Employees)

The Records and Information Management Division of the Bureau of Human Resources (HR/EX/RIM) utilizes an automated centralized personnel records control system. The system provides immediate on-line determination of the status and location of official folders (Foreign Service Administrative, Foreign Service Performance, Civil Service Administrative, Merged Records Personnel Folder, and Employee Performance File) and a follow up control system on charged-out folders. The system permits an instant check on authorized users of official personnel folders (OPFs) and employee performance folders (EPFs), specifying the type(s) of folders involved, and a printout of the list of users at periodic intervals for update purposes. The system also makes possible a periodic check on the status of requests to Federal records centers or other Federal agencies for inactive personnel folders for prior service and pre-employment consideration.

3 FAH-1 H-2352.6-2 Charge-Out Procedure

(CT:POH-126; 03-23-2007)

(State Only)

(Applies to Foreign Service and Civil Service Employees)

An official personnel folder (OPF) charged out to one authorized user must never be forwarded to an individual in another office even though that person may also be an authorized user. The loan or transfer of such folders to any other employee could result in disciplinary action or fines under the Privacy Act in cases of willful and knowing unauthorized disclosure. Each charge-out of an OPF must be made and recorded by the Records and Information Management Division of the Bureau of Human Resources (HR/EX/RIM). Normally, an OPF should be returned within 10 workdays although there may be circumstances justifying longer retention which may be authorized by HR/EX/RIM on a case-by-case basis. HR/EX/RIM may request return of an OPF at any time and it must be returned promptly.

3 FAH-1 H-2352.6-3 Maintenance and Disposition

(CT:POH-126; 03-23-2007)

(State Only)

(Applies to Foreign Service and Civil Service Employees)

The Director General has responsibility for proper maintenance and disposition of all personnel files. Technical advice and assistance is available upon request from the Chief, Records and Information Management Division of the Bureau of Human Resources (HR/EX/RIM). Special care must be exercised not to destroy any personnel records without proper disposal authorization, under penalty of heavy fines imposed by the Records Disposal Act of 1943, as amended, and the Federal Records Act of 1950. Approved disposition schedules regarding personnel records may be accessed from the Office of Information Programs and Services (A/ISS/IPS) Intranet Web site. They are also available upon request from the Chief, HR/EX/RIM.

3 FAH-1 H-2352.6-4 Filing and Removal of Documents

(CT:POH-126; 03-23-2007)

(State Only)

- a. Documents and information may not be added to or removed from official personnel folders (OPFs) except by members of the Records and Information Management Division of the Bureau of Human Resources (HR/EX/RIM).

3 FAH-1 H-2354.2 Administrative Records

(CT:POH-126; 03-23-2007)

(State Only)

(Applies to Foreign Service and Civil Service Employees)

- c. An accounting of disclosure need not be made in cases of routine use by authorized Department or post officials, accredited investigators, EEO counselors, EEO investigators, FWP coordinators, as prescribed in 3 FAM 2352.4-2, or when disclosures are made pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Any other disclosure inside or outside the post, even if authorized by the employee, must be recorded. This accounting of disclosure must show the name of the employee file, the name and address of the person to whom the file is disclosed, the purpose and date of disclosure, and whether or not the employee's consent was obtained.

Since the accounting of disclosure must be retained for five years, a separate log is recommended for disclosure records.

(CT:POH-126; 03-23-2007)

(State Only)
