Dear FCC:

I'm for the Merger of Sirius and XM radio . It will give the consumer more choices and price levels for what we want to hear. I am a Sat. radio Subscriber, as it is now as we all know, we would have to subscribe to both Sirius and XM and have extra equipment in the car if we wanted to hear it all... Not good ... I would hate to see Sat Radio go away do to financial reason if the merger is not approved, We would be going backward in technology. With IPOD's and all the other choices out there for entertainment, I don't see this as a monopoly. No one is forcing anyone to go Sat Radio . It's just another option for consumer entertainment. If someone thinks that this would create a monopoly then don't buy into the service... Times have changed and rules and laws should adjust to the changing times..

Sincerely,

Vincent R. Accardi
