

Comment Info: =====

General Comment: There have been no studies proving radiation or other "pasteurization safe." This was tried during the anthrax scares in the Postal Service and failed miserably. There has not either been public notice or discourse, probably not with legislators either. It is simply yet another subversive sneak play by the FDA/USDA to saddle the public with potentially dangerous procedures.