PETER OHR AND JENNIFER BURGESS-SOLOMON ARE APPOINTED DEPUTY ASSISTANT GENERAL COUNSELS IN NLRB'S
DIVISION OF OPERATIONS-MANAGEMENT

National Labor Relations Board's Acting General Counsel Arthur F. Rosenfeld announced today the appointments of Peter S. Ohr and Jennifer Burgess-Solomon as Deputy Assistant General Counsels in the Division of Operations-Management, the office that directs the work of the agency's 32 regional offices throughout the United States.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. It conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation, and it investigates and remedies unfair labor practices.

Commenting on the appointments, Acting General Counsel Rosenfeld stated:

Peter and Jennifer have distinguished themselves as two of the premier attorneys in the agency. They have consistently demonstrated excellent legal skills, sound judgment and the ability to complete assignments in accordance with the high standards of the agency. They will be valuable additions to the Division of Operations-Management.

Born in Seoul, Korea, Mr. Ohr received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of California – Riverside in 1989, where he majored in business economics. He was awarded his J.D. degree from Pepperdine School of Law in 1994 and a M.B.A. with distinction in Finance from Hawaii Pacific University in 2000. After graduation from law school, he held positions with a judge for the state of Hawaii, a state legislator in Hawaii, a Hawaii state agency and two law firms. He has been employed as an attorney in the NLRB's Honolulu Sub-regional Office since 1997.

Ms. Burgess-Solomon has been employed in the NLRB's Miami Resident Office since 1995. Raised in Queens, New York, Ms. Burgess-Solomon received her Bachelor of Science degree in biology from the State University of New York at Stony Brook in 1985. She attended law school at the University of Miami, where she received cum laude honors while earning her J.D. degree in 1993. After graduation from law school, Ms. Burgess-Solomon worked in private practice with a firm specializing in medical malpractice litigation until joining the Miami Resident Office of Region 12 as an attorney. She received a promotion to the position of Supervisory Attorney in 2000 and a second promotion to the position of Deputy Regional Attorney in 2002.
