KELLY SELVIDGE IS NAMED ASSISTANT TO THE REGIONAL DIRECTOR IN NLRB'S DENVER, CO OFFICE

Ronald Meisburg, General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, today announced the appointment of Kelly Selvidge as Assistant to the Regional Director in the NLRB's Denver, CO Regional Office (Region 27).

A career NLRB employee, Ms. Selvidge had been serving as a Supervisory Field Examiner in the Agency's Regional Office in Los Angeles, CA (Region 21). In her new position, she succeeds Wayne L. Benson, who retired earlier this year.

As Assistant to the Regional Director, Ms. Selvidge will assist Regional Director B. Allan Benson in the processing of unfair labor practice and representation cases arising in Colorado, Utah and Wyoming, as well as counties in Nebraska, Idaho and Montana.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. It conducts secret ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation, and investigates and remedies unfair labor practice charges.

In announcing the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg stated:

> Kelly's maturity, tact and insight have greatly contributed to the Agency's resolution of numerous labor disputes over the years. She brings excellent analytical ability, organizational skills and administrative experience to her new position. I am confident she will uphold the Denver Regional Office's tradition of providing high quality service to the Rocky Mountain area.

A native of Fremont, CA, Ms. Selvidge received her B.A. degree in Political Science from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA). She joined the NLRB as a student assistant in the Los Angeles, CA Regional Office (Region 31) in 1984. After working as a Field Examiner in the NLRB's Brooklyn, NY Regional Office (Region 29) from 1985 until 1990, she returned to the Los Angeles area in 1991 to work in Region 21. She was promoted to Supervisory Field Examiner in that office in 1992.
