Article 2

This law shall come into force as from the date of its publication in the Official Gazette.

Article 3

The Ministers are charged with the execution of this Law.

Ahmed Hassan Al-Beker

Chairman of the Revolutionary Command Council

Published in the Waqiya Al-Iraqiya No. 2144 of 31/5/1972.

Economic and Trade Cooperation Agreement Between the Government of the Republic of Iraq and the Government of the Republic of Guinea

The Government of the Republic of Iraq and the Government of the Republic of Guinea, being desirous of promoting and furthering the Economic and trade relations between their respective Countries on the basis of equality and mutual benefit, have agreed on the following :-

Article 1

The Two Contracting Parties shall grant each other the most-favoured-nation-treatment with regard to Customs Duties, Taxes and other Charges relating to the importation, exportation, storage, transit and other transshipment of goods and with regard to the methods of charging these duties and the formalities of clearing the goods.

The above provision shall not apply to the following :-

- a. Privileges and advantages granted to the bordering countries by either of the two Contracting Parties in order to facilitate border trade.
- b. Privileges arising out for joining a regional organization or an agreement for a customs union or a common market or a free trade zone entered into by either Contracting Parties.

Article 2

- a. Subject to the laws and regulations in force in both countries, the two Contracting Parties agree to grant the necessary licences to facilitate import from and exports to each other territory of the goods listed in the two schedules (a) and (b) annexed to this Agreement. The two schedules shall be an integral part of this Agreement.

This Agreement shall not preclude trade in goods and commodities not listed in the said schedules.

- b. The Two Contracting Parties shall attain a volume of trade for each of them of (1) one million pound sterling per annum. This amount can be increased by mutual agreement.

Article 3

Subject to their respective laws and regulations the two Contracting Parties agree to grant each other all necessary facilities for promotion of trade between the two countries, including facilities for holding trade fairs and exhibition and to establish trade center in their respective countries.

Article 4

All payments and charges in connection with the import and export of goods between the two countries shall be carried out in any convertible currency agreed upon by both Parties.

Article 5

The merchant ships belonging to either of the two Contracting Parties, together with their cargoes, shall enjoy, in respect of all matters relating to navigation, free entry into the ports open to foreign trade, use of ports and harbour facilities, loading and unloading dues, taxes and other facilities, a treatment in no way less favourable than the treatment accorded to any other foreign country, except that any concessions accorded to ships engaged in the coastal trade of either party shall not be available under this Article to the Other Party.

Article 6

The Two Contracting Parties agree that goods imported by either of the two countries from the other may not be re-exported to a third country without the prior approval of the country of origin.

Article 7

Being desirous to assist the Government of the Republic of Guinea to implement the economic development plans which she is undertaking, the Government of the Republic of Iraq shall extend an economic credit to the Government of the Republic of Guinea of an amount equivalent to (2) two million pounds sterling (the gold contents of the Pound at present is 2,13281 grams of fine gold) to be utilized to cover the cost of goods and services supplied by the organizations of the Republic of Guinea. The cost of the goods and services shall be computed on (C and F) basis. This credit shall be subject to an interest at the rate of 2,5 per cent annum.

Article 8

For the purpose of computing the accrued interest, the date of utilizing the credit for the supplies and services shall commence as from the date of presenting the documents and invoices to the Central Bank of Iraq.

Article 9

Implementation of this Agreement shall be effected on the basis of Contracts to be concluded between the competent organizations of the two Countries.

Other term and details shall be agreed upon in these contracts.

Article 10

The credit and the accrued interest shall be repaid in five equal annual instalments in Pound Sterling.

The first instalment shall commence as from the beginning of the year 1975.

Article 11

The Central Bank of Iraq and the Central Bank of the Republic of Guinea shall, upon coming of this Agreement into force, make necessary banking arrangements for its implementation in particular book-keeping.

Article 12

In case of any change in the gold contents of the Pound Sterling being at present 2,13281 grams of fine gold then the outstanding amount of the credit and the unpaid due instalments shall be adjusted in such a way that the value of the credit expressed in fine gold shall remain unchanged.

Article 13

Being desirous of promoting the cooperation between their two countries, the two Contracting Parties have decided to establish a joint Iraq-Guinean committee which shall convene upon request of either Party in Conakry and Baghdad, alternately to examine the problems which might arise out of the implementation of this Agreement and to study the means that leads to promotion and expansion of economic and trade cooperation between them.

Article 14

This Agreement shall come into force as from the date of exchanging notes confirming both Governments approval of it in accordance with their constitutional procedures and shall remain valid for a period of five years and shall thereafter automatically be renewed for similar periods.

Made at Baghdad in November 4, 1971 in two original copies each in the Arabic and French Languages. Both texts are equally authentic.

For the Government of the Republic of Iraq.

For the Government of the Republic of Guinea.
